Resolutions Committee Report

We, the Resolutions Committee of Eastern Baptist Association, wish to express our appreciation to the 159th Annual Session for its spirit of love emphasized through the theme "Caring Together" and its mission theme "It's OK to Care."

To our Associational Missionary, Rev. Bill Lamb and his wife Miriam, we wish to express our appreciation for their dedicated leadership and service to this Association. We commend you for the way in which you have so quickly found a place in all our hearts.

To Mrs. Lucille Yancey, our gratitude for outstanding leadership throughout the year and for the smooth and efficient manner in which you have presided over both sessions of our annual meeting.

We extend praise to the messengers for their spirit of unity.

To Mrs. Jo Neal Robinson we are thankful for the efficient way in which you have carried out your responsibilities, many times going beyond the call of duty.

To Mrs. Cathy Hopkins, our thanks for the enthusiastic way in which you have carried out all phases of the work of our association.

To Rev. David Moore, Clerk, and those serving in other staff positions, and other elected officers and leaders for their devoted service in carrying out their responsibilities.

That we express our deepest appreciation to the host churches, Warsaw assisted by Calvary, and Bear Marsh assisted by Alum Springs for providing the delicious meals, and the kindly manner in providing for our comfort.

Whereas the Long-Range Planning Committee has worked long and hard to prepare a plan for the future of Eastern Baptist Association,

Be it resolved, that we express appreciation to James Pardue and the Long-Range Planning Committee for their work and excellent report.

Be it further resolved, that Eastern Baptist Association follow the plan in order to better minister to the people of this area and beyond.

Whereas it has been the long-time dream of many in Eastern Baptist Association to have enlarged associational office space to better minister through the Association,

And whereas many have worked together to begin to bring the dream to reality,

Be it resolved that we express appreciation to the Long-Range Planning Committee for giving planning and encouragement to the associational office project.

Be it further resolved that we express appreciation to Warsaw Baptist Church for offering to the Association the use of the second floor of their old educational building for office space and to Duplin Medical Association for their cooperation in the project.

Be it further resolved, that we express appreciation to Tony Gurganus and the Office Building Planning Committee for their work in preparing the plans for the renovation of the office space.

Be it further resolved that we express appreciation to Tony Wilson, Mike Shook and the Stewardship Committee for their work in preparing the plan to finance the renovation.

Be it finally resolved, that churches and individuals of Eastern Baptist Association support the office building project financially in order that the work and ministries of our Association will go forward unhinderedly.

Associational Executive Board Report

The Executive Board met for five meetings during the 1985-86 associational year for the purpose of acting for the Eastern Baptist Association between annual meetings. The following is a summary of major actions taken.

January 20, 1986 - GROVE PARK BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty-three (33) churches in attendance. The board unanimously approved a Long-Range Planning Committee recommendation to provide additional office/conference space for the Association. The space approved is located on the second floor of the former educational building of the Warsaw Baptist Church. The board also set in motion the appointment, by the Moderator, of a Building Committee to work out renovation details, floor plans, and acceptance of cost bids. The Stewardship Committee was assigned the responsibility of working out the finances. Department and committee reports were given.

April 21, 1986 - SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty-one (31) churches in attendance. The Stewardship Committee reported "an underbudget in giving by $6,929.53" for the first six months of church year 1985-86. The committee recommended asking the churches to give a one-time additional gift to the Association to help offset the deficit. The details were presented, and the board approved the recommendation. The Office Building Planning Committee reported the receipt of drawings and blueprints for the additional office space. The Long-Range Planning Committee recommended associational objectives and goals in four (4) areas: (1) Associational Development, (2) Church Leadership, (3) Associational Office Facilities, and (4) Missions Development. The Long-Range recommendation passed overwhelmingly. Department and committee reports were given.

July 21, 1986 - CORINTH BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with twenty-eight (28) churches in attendance. The board approved the establishment of Seminary Extension work in Eastern Association and named a special committee to develop the work. The Extension work is to be established by the policies of the Seminary Extension Department, Nashville, Tennessee, and a full report is to be made to the annual meeting in October 1986. Department and committee reports were given. Plans for the additional office/conference space are still in process.

September 4, 1986 - WARSAW BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty-two (32) churches in attendance. The Office Building Planning Committee presented plans and bids for the renovation of the additional office space. The board approved a recommendation from the Stewardship Committee outlining the financing of Phase I of the renovation. Phase I will cost $41,000. The recommendation, including floor plans and financing, were overwhelmingly approved by the Executive Board. The Building Planning Committee stated that a meeting will be called prior to renovation to bring together representatives of the Warsaw Baptist Church, Duplin Medical Center, and Eastern Association to work out and complete details of a three-way agreement with regard to the use of the office space. The board would be informed at a later date as to the exact wording of the three-way agreement.

September 22, 1986 - WARSAW BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty (30) churches in attendance. The three-way agreement with regard to the new office space was presented to the Executive Board. The board approved the agreement with minor revisions. The agreement involves three parties: (1) The Warsaw Baptist Church, the Lessor or Owner, (2) the Duplin Medical Association, Primary Lessee, or Tenant, and (3) the Eastern Baptist Association, Sub-Lessee or Tenant. Recommendations from the Stewardship Committee as to the management of monies for the renovation of the office/conference space were approved by the board.

Woman's Missionary Union Report

The WMU of North Carolina celebrated 100 years of mission work this year. We began with a birthday party on January 8, following with 100 days of prayer which led us into the dates for our state annual meeting. We celebrated in Raleigh, at the Civic Center, on April 17-19. Several of our ladies attended. Rev. Waldo Early braved the storm to be with his wife who has been in mission work for 75 years. Eastern Association celebrated with two prayer retreats, planned by Mrs. Inez Peterson, our Centennial Chairman. Dr. I. Ruth Martin, of Lumberton, led both retreats - one at First Baptist Church, Clinton and the other at the Warsaw Church. Many of our churches had special events during the year.

WMU, SBC, has set a goal to have 2,000,000 women, girls and preschoolers involved in quality mission education by September 1988. Eastern Association wants to double its membership. We need your help in accomplishing this. Every church in our association has at least one organization in WMU, but much more growth is needed in mission education.

Associational leaders were trained at Camp Caraway and at Kinston. These officers, in turn, taught church WMU leaders from Eastern Association at the Warsaw Baptist Church in September.

Some of the associational highlights for the year 1985-86 are as follows:

- Baptist Woman's Manual Study taught by Suthell Walker, State BW Consultant, at Shiloh Baptist Church, October 17, 1985.
- Girls in Action Get-together - Warsaw Baptist Church, April 10, 1986.
- Girls in Action Day Camp - Warsaw Baptist Church, May 31, 1986.
- Mission Action Projects - gifts of stamps to NC Correctional Center for Women, in Raleigh; health kits and clothing for migrants; Bibles for Liberia; monies for Eastern Association Deaf Ministry; and involvement in other mission ministries in our Association.
- The WMU Annual Session was hosted by Mount Gilead Baptist Church, April 24, 1986. This was truly a highlight for our centennial year. Our heartfelt thanks go to Mount Gilead for such a wonderful day. The meal was delicious, and the hospitality outstanding.

The WMU Watchword for the year was "All over the world this gospel is producing fruit and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and understood God's grace in all its truths" (Colossians 1:6 NIV). Today, we are challenged to share the vision of the true gospel which has two outstanding characteristics! It bears fruit, and it spreads! We, Christians, are compelled to share the good news with others.

History of Alum Springs Baptist Church

Alum Springs Baptist Church was organized September 21, 1902, in the Woodland School House by Reverend N.A. Shirley and W.H. Vanhoy. There were only six members at this time: Preston Chestnutt, Gaston Kelly, Sr., Thomas Maready, Jane Chestnutt, Lizzie Chestnutt and Eddie Maready.

These few went to work to build a church selecting a location near Woodland School House. Mr. Hargett Kornegay gave land for this purpose on May 18, 1903, but for unknown reasons the building was not started. Rev. Shirley continued to hold services until his death. No services were held for a few months until the Eastern Association sent Rev. D.S. Kennedy who served the church at different places until April 1906. Seven new members were added during a revival held at Scott's School House near the present church.

On May 13, 1906, all members met at Scott's School House and decided to build the church we now occupy. On July 13, 1906, Gaston Kelly, Sr. gave land to build a church near the fork of the road leading from Herring Marsh to Kornegay Bridge. The building was started in October 1906 and finished in 1907 free of debt.

The first union meeting was held at Alum Springs on December 27, 1907 and the church was dedicated by C.M. Rock.

On September 18, 1919, the Woman's Missionary Society was organized and Mrs. Cannie Kornegay was elected president.

Church services continued to be held once a month. In 1946 Sunday School and Bible School were begun. Sunday School rooms were added in 1951. A fellowship hall was added in 1957.

A dedication service was held on July 9, 1967, dedicating the baptistry and mural. In 1981 the church sanctuary was remodeled and the Sunday School rooms in 1984.

The church now has 76 members. Present pastor is Shelton Justice.

Evangelism Report

Eastern Baptists joined Baptists across the nation in the"Good News America, God Loves You" 1986 Simultaneous Revivals. Thirty-five churches, The Hispanic Mission and the Deaf Mission participated in revival services during March and April 1986 with good responses and decisions made by youth and adults. A large number of pastors, guest preachers, and laypersons attended a Revival Luncheon/Fellowship Meeting on March 10. Pastors and church leaders shared in a Good News America preparation meeting on January 23. Some of our pastors and laypersons supported the 40th Statewide Evangelism Conference at Greensboro Coliseum on February 3-4. The Down East Evangelism Workshop was held at the N.C. Baptist Assembly at Caswell on May 23-24 with several EBA churches represented.

In 1987 Eastern Baptists are challenged to become more involved in lay witness training. Evangelism needs to be a priority in Christian ministry.

History of Calvary Baptist Church

Calvary Baptist Church was founded in the fall of 1958 after the recognition of a need for religious leadership and development in Warsaw. The growth of the Warsaw Community during the 1950s caused many social and religious leaders to request permission of the Warsaw Baptist Church and the Eastern Baptist Association to establish a new church.

Efforts to lay a church foundation began in July 1958 and a revival was held in the fall as the first formal church meeting. The September 15-21 revival was held in the American Legion Building of Warsaw. The Reverend U.A. McManus, Jr., Eastern Association Missionary, conducted the services. Revival concluded with Sunday School and worship services on September 21. Sunday School was attended by 19 persons and the following worship service, 24. Sunday services continued with Mr. McManus leading the group, until October 19, when the Reverend Paul Mull was extended the call to become pastor at Calvary.

The Reverend Mull relieved the Associational Missionary of pastoral duties October 19. That same Sunday, Warsaw Baptist Church voted to co-sponsor the expenses of a chapel for Calvary. The fledgling church moved from its temporary home in the American Legion Hall November 1, to a house rented from Mrs. C.H. Piner. The first Sunday services were held in the Piner home November 2, with 28 in Sunday School and 42 attending morning worship. The following Sunday, Calvary received three members on profession of faith in Christ and 11 by letter. Pastor Mull led Calvary's first Wednesday evening prayer service November 19 with 11 persons attending.

The church organization continued to grow with the formation of a Women's Missionary Union in January 1959. Mrs. R.M. Herring was elected WMU President. A Sunday night training union continued the growth of Calvary. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vann, from the Warsaw Baptist Church, began the training union services February 1. Bible School was held in May and 52 persons enrolled with an average of 46 in daily attendance. Evelyn Miller and Glenn Jernigan were the first couple to be united in marriage in the chapel of the Piner home, May 29, 1959.

Calvary Baptist Church was fully recognized August 23, 1959 with 53 charter members and a meeting was held October 28 to select a site for construction of a chapel. A lot on Memorial Drive was the unanimous selection and groundbreaking services were held January 15, 1961, by the Reverend Paul Mull, Training Union Director John Yancey, Brotherhood Director Ennis Tadlock, WMU Director Reba Jones and Sunday School Director Colon McLaurin. W.C. Bass, Jr., of Clinton, received the bid to construct the new church. The building was released by the contractor in March 1962. Calvary held the first revival in the new building the same month the contractor released the structure, with the Reverend Reece Riggins as guest evangelist.

Calvary's growth continued with eight participating in the first Girls' Auxiliary coronation, August 31, 1963. Two years later, in June, Barbara Raynor and Nancy Pope were crowned Queens. Barbara received the scepter as Queen Regent during coronation services June 11, 1967.

Following the resignation of the Reverend Paul Mull, November 15, 1964, a call was extended to the Reverend Milliard Bounds. The Reverend Bounds began his ministry at Calvary on February 28, 1965, and served until July 10, 1966 when he submitted his resignation. The Reverend M.A. Conrad was hired as supply pastor in August 1966 and he began full-time October 2, 1966. A resignation was submitted by the Reverend Conrad, November 1969, when he retired. Associational Missionary, J. Henry Simpson, served as supply pastor until a call was extended to the Reverend H.T. Baumgardner of Colerain, North Carolina. The Reverend Baumgardner began his ministry at Calvary, November 4, 1970.

Calvary invested in a parsonage December 16, 1970. Three years later note burning services for the chapel building were held on March 11. Calvary was presented an offer to purchase the Wade Carlton home directly behind the church in 1976. A formal recommendation to purchase the Carlton home was presented to Calvary during a February business meeting and the members of Calvary voted to sell the parsonage purchased in 1970 and buy the Carlton home. Calvary paid off the parsonage debt and held note burning ceremonies during the October 1982 homecoming services.

Robert Earl Price received the first Eagle Scout award presented at Calvary, September 10, 1972.

Calvary received its first trust fund October 22, 1972. The $500 fund was presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Maurey Lanier in memory of their son, Rex. The Rex Lanier Fund was increased to $1,000.00, January 1, 1974 by a donation from his brother, Edward Lanier. Mr. Henry Jones donated the second trust fund in January 1974. The fund was presented in memory of his wife, Hettie Jones. A third trust fund was presented to Calvary, April 8, 1977, in memory of Mr. Commie W. Warren. The $1,000 fund was donated by Doris Warren in memory of her husband, Commie.

An assistant pastor was hired at Calvary, February 11, 1976, with the Reverend Odel Mathis filling the position. The Reverend Mathis became temporary pastor upon the resignation of the Reverend Baumgardner, May 27, 1979. The position of full-time pastor was assumed by the Reverend F.J. McCarson from Marion, North Carolina, October 19, 1979. The Reverend Mathis resigned as assistant pastor late in 1979.

Calvary participated in the first World Missions Conference during March 20-23, 1980, hosting missionaries as guest speakers. And, April of 1981 marked the beginning of a regular weekly visitation program manned by members of Calvary.

A painting on canvas was purchased for the wall of the church baptistry in April 1983 and the interior was coated with a fiberglass lining.

The first Calvary Baptist Church softball team was formed in May 1983 to participate in the Warsaw Recreation Church league. The team was coached by Johnny Chestnutt and Emily Killette.

The Reverend F.J. McCarson submitted his resignation effective June 1983. The Reverend Andy Wood accepted the position as pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, August 7, 1983.

Media Library Committee Report

The continuing theme until 1990 for Media Libraries is "IMPACT 90." The emphasis for this past year has been "Read: Open Your World" with several churches using this focus for their own media libraries.

Grove Park Church experienced the tragic loss of their media library in April due to a fire in the educational plant. Plans are underway for a new facility designed to meet the needs of their church.

A survey was taken during the year to determine the status of media libraries in Eastern Association in order that the Media Library Committee can better help to meet the needs of the churches. This survey will go on file for future reference in the associational office.

The Key Leadership Conference in August offered assistance in establishing one new media library at Mount Vernon Church and in strengthening several existing facilities.

B. Mrs. Mary Boney, Poston Baptist Church, shared information of the Deaf Ministry and reported eight baptisms and Sunday School enrollment of 16.

Rev. Oliver Skerrett, pastor of Mt. Gilead Church, led in prayer of thanksgiving and for blessing of the evening meal at 6:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION: 7:30 p.m. The women joined in singing "To God Be The Glory." The celebration of victories was concluded as follows:

C. Baptist Women from Rose Hill Baptist Church recalled the dedication of Miss Katie Murray, retired missionary to China, who challenged all women to witness.

D. Lucille Yancey recalled the early history of Rowan Baptist Church WMU which was organized in 1906.

Prayer calendar and Scripture (I Timothy 4:11-16) - Mrs. Andy (Tempie) Wood.

A musical emphasis on magazines was presented by Mrs. Phyllis Matthews, GA Director, assisted by Baptist Women and Acteens members.

The WMU directors responded to roll call by stating year organized, present enrollment, and number of pastors or missionaries called into Christian Service.

Proceedings of the annual session were taped by Rev. Ottis King, pastor, Wells Chapel. In the absence of Mrs. Mary Evelyn Wells, Jr., Enlistment/Enlargement, Mrs. Linda Hawes reported an enrollment increase of 204 and one new Baptist Women organization at Poplar Grove Church, making a total of 40 WMU organizations in our association. The director recognized Mrs. Jane Kaleel who described two pictures on display: one of Fannie Heck, given to WMU, Eastern Baptist Association, by Miss Macy Cox in 1956; second, the WMU centennial painting by Pete Turner, N.C. artist. The pictures will be hung in the association office when renovation is completed.

Nominating Committee 1987-88 - Mrs. Norwood Carter, Mrs. Delbert Carr, and Mrs. Tony Gurganus.

Mrs. Judy Caviness, WMU Director, invited the 78th annual session to be held at First Baptist Church, Mount Olive, (April 1987).

Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell Nance, new pastor of Union Grove Baptist Church, were recognized.

Phyllis Matthews, GA Director, announced associational Mother/Daughter Get-Together April 10, 1986, and GA Day Camp May 31, 1986, at Warsaw Baptist Church.

Mrs. James Hartsell presented the 1986-87 WMU officers for election; report was accepted and the following were elected:

Warsaw Baptist Church was commended for achieving Standard recognition--1984-85. Special music, "Here's My Life," was presented by Mrs. William C. Lamb, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Mett Ausley, pianist.

Rev. William C. Lamb, Director of Missions, EBA, brought a message on "Bold Commitment." He asked the women to remember their heritage, and stated that bold commitment is: (1) being a visionary, (2) bold missions is what we do beyond our self-interest, (3) restoring hope to those in need, and (4) seeing needs beyond the ordinary. Mr. Lamb concluded by urging the women to accept the challenge of bold commitment through missions.

After congregational singing of the "Doxology," the 1986 annual session came to a close with the flag recessional by Acteens, and the meeting was adjourned.

Church Training Report

Church Training in the Eastern Baptist Association is alive and well. This year we have experienced a broadening of discipleship programs in many churches. With the implementation of the Survival Kits and Equipping Center Modules, Christians are being equipped and motivated for service.

CONGRATULATIONS! Heather Dudzinski, *Brian Caveness, *Meredith Blackwelder, Scott Rose, Cameron Withers of FBC, Mount Olive; *Brad Shook, Melissa Allcox, and Alan Caulder of Rowan Church; and *Michele Baldwin and Casey Hatch of FBC, Clinton, state winners in Children's Bible Drill; also to Michael Briggs of Rowan - a winner in the State Youth Bible Drill.

This is my last year as program director. I want to thank the CT staff for their efforts and genuine concern for Christian training. You can look to the future with confidence as competent new leadership will continue the good works of the past decades.

Sunday School Report

"Gather the people together, men and women, and children, and thy sojourner who is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law;" Deut. 31:12. When we read these words we read God's mandate, method, and motive for Bible study.

Last year the Sunday School had the privilege of working hand in hand with Evangelism to make "Good News America, God Loves You" revivals more meaningful for our association and local churches. Our Sunday Schools did People Search and other prospect discovery methods and found many lost people. Some of these were "reaped" through the revivals. Let's keep looking and reaping.

The ASSISTeam and individual members of the team ministered to over half of our churches this past year in one way or another. This year we expect to minister to even a greater number.

Our attention is now focused toward the level of Sunday School growth called "CHALLENGE 10/90" which began last year. The purpose is to reach a Sunday School enrollment of 10 million persons by 1990 across the SBC. Our associational enrollment goal is 5 percent each year for these five years.

For the coming year there are two other areas where we will strive to see a marked increase. These two areas are Worker's Meetings and Leadership Training. Our goal in worker's meeting is to see active worker meetings being conducted in at least 12 of our churches. The second area of concern is Leadership Training. Our goal is to see at least 120 earned Leadership Diplomas by September 30, 1987.

Your ASSISTeam is ready to help you at any time. That's our total purpose as a team, to help you in the local church. We look forward to working with all churches this coming year.

Missions Development Council Report

The year 1985-86 was a good year in Missions Development for continued growth and development. The ministry committees served faithfully with enthusiasm and a concern for people. This dedication is evidenced in the following actions of the Council:

- Began work on Mission Ministry's policies and cluster groups of churches ministering together: Target areas - Clinton and lower Duplin County.
- Sponsored Backyard Bible Club Training.
- 1986-87 goals, calendars and budget requests developed by each ministry committee.

- Cooperative Agreement requests were presented to the Executive Board on July 21, 1986 and approved.
- Received quarterly progress reports on the Deaf Mission at Poston and the Hispanic Mission at FBC, Clinton.

- Utilized $2,956.47 (as of September 30, 1986) from the Hunger Fund to meet the hunger needs in our communities.
- Baptist State Convention of NC featured Eastern Association and three of its ministries, Hispanic, Deaf and Volunteer Chaplaincy in the September State Missions offering promotional materials.

The Missions Development Council wishes to thank all Eastern Baptists for their support. Pray that God will continue to lead us as we explore new avenues of mission ministries.

Literacy Ministries Committee Report

During November 1985, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Hern, State Literacy Coordinator of Raleigh, conducted a two-night literacy workshop at Warsaw Baptist Church using Laubach method and materials and trained a good number of interested persons.

During April, Florence Hoover attended the first National Literacy Convocation at Ridgecrest and received a Literacy Missions Training Award for 16 hours.

Mrs. Bill Lamb trained the student summer missionaries, Kobi McKenzie, Jennifer Treloar, Orpha Ortega and Jerry Miller in English for speakers of other languages. These students worked with Hispanics at Faison Baptist Church. The ministry that they began is being continued with other tutors teaching English, reading and writing.

Plans from the literacy committee are being made for another workshop. Plan now to get trained. We need your help.

Poston Baptist Church Deaf Mission Report

A banquet was held the third week in November 1985, sponsored by the church, with approximately 40 persons in attendance. During our 1986 spring revival, Poston secured Neverne Rogers, interpreter of Conway, South Carolina, for the entire week. There were three professions of faith. Average attendance was 10 deaf each night.

Sunday School and worship service have been held each Sunday with an average attendance of 10 - 12. Rev. Arledge Castles is leading the deaf in an excellent way.

The entire group attended TIC (Together in Christ) retreat at Caraway in May, sponsored by Eastern Baptist Association, Poston Church and Warsaw Church, who furnished the van. The group went Saturday, May 17 and returned Sunday evening, May 18; while in Asheboro, they also visited the zoo.

August 17-18, a spiritual enrichment retreat was led by Jerry Potter, Deaf Ministry Coordinator of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The retreat began at 5:00 p.m. with a break for supper furnished by the church. On Sunday, Mr. Potter taught Sunday School to the deaf and then spoke to a joint worship service. The deaf furnished special music led by Etta Castles and accompanied by the church choir. The entire church enjoyed a fellowship meal following the service.

Hispanic Mission Report

The Hispanic Mission has experienced a year of numerical growth and growing stability as it enters its second year. In numbers, the mission has moved from a high of 50 last summer to a high of 78 this summer. And, even after the summer, the attendance is near what used to be high attendance. In stability, families are being located, who remain in the area and spiritual stability is evident in faithfulness and excitement.

William Ortega continues to provide outstanding leadership to the mission. During the year, he was married to Orpha, who adds so much in the leadership of the group.

Three needs continue to handicap the more rapid growth of the mission.

(1) Knowledge of its existence:

We hope you will help in providing information in our area of the mission and its services at 3:00 on Sunday afternoon at First Baptist, Clinton.

(2) Finances:

Almost all of these families are struggling for the basic needs of life. They have very little money to support their church. Mission groups should consider this as a project.

(3) Transportation:

Because only one bus is available and the area is vast, many are unable to attend who would really like to. An additional van is needed to aid in this area. First Baptist is grateful to the Eastern Association for its support and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
James Pardue, Clinton, First

Church Music Report

3) to provide a music workshop/festival for the Adult Choir members in the spring of 1987.

Seminary Extension Report

Southern Baptists are committed to education, especially the education of persons preparing for service in Christian ministry. Traditionally this has involved the support of colleges, universities, and theological seminaries located around the country.

For more than 30 years, however, this support also has extended to the non-traditional approaches expressed through the Seminary Extension Department. The department's network of more than 300 extension centers and its correspondence study have brought biblical and theological education opportunities close to home for thousands of pastors and lay leaders throughout the SBC.

Sensing the need to better equip our Bible (Sunday School) teachers in our churches in the Bible and with biblical materials, the Executive Board on July 21, 1986, voted to establish a Seminary Extension center in Eastern Association and agreed to be its sponsor. The board also approved a special committee to develop the center in the association: James Hartsell, Island Creek; David Moore, Warsaw; Randy Outland, Mt. Vernon; James Pardue, FBC, Clinton; Carl Price, Warsaw; Bob Sanderson, Siloam; and Mary Evelyn Wells, Rose Hill.

This special committee has met four times to organize an operational Seminary Extension center in Eastern Association. The committee has assessed the needs of our association, determined its policy, applied and received certification to establish a center, planned the finances, and selected a course for the first term. We also recommend that the association adopt the name of the center as the "Eastern Association Christian Education Center."

The committee proposes to offer the course How to Understand the Bible during the winter term of January - March 1987. Because of the geography of our association the committee suggests that we have two locations to hold classes in our center; one in Sampson County and one in Duplin County.

Classes will meet one night a week for two hours for nine or ten weeks. The cost will be $15 registration fee per course plus the cost of the textbook(s). The honorarium for the teacher will be paid by the Baptist State Convention.

Other courses we hope to offer in the future might include: Old Testament Survey, New Testament Survey, Biblical Backgrounds, Dynamics of Teaching, and Fundamentals of Music. We also hope to go beyond our Bible teachers later and offer courses in the county prison units, retirement villages, and special groups of interested people.

We anticipate that the work of Eastern Association Christian Education Center will be significant as we seek to meet the learning/educational needs of laypersons and pastors alike, and help Eastern Baptist Association move forward in Bold Mission Thrust.

Randy Outland, Chairman

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty-two (32) churches in attendance. The Board approved several policies concerning World Hunger funds/food ministries, clothing ministries, and emergency funds. The Board also passed a Stewardship Committee recommendation to continue with Phase II of the EBA office building renovation and that the trustees be authorized to borrow sufficient funds to complete Phase II. Seminary classes in Bible and Pastoral Care were scheduled. James W. Johnson was recommended for ordination to the Gospel ministry.

April 21, 1987 - WARSAW BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with twenty-five (25) churches in attendance. Administrative policies on EBA personnel were approved by the Board. Dedication and open house on the new EBA office space was set for Sunday, June 28, 1987. This would be one of the most significant historical events in the 159 years of serving Christ through the Eastern Baptist Association.

July 21, 1987 - MAGNOLIA BAPTIST CHURCH

Lucille Yancey moderated with thirty-one (31) churches in attendance. A list of priority needs for the Eastern Baptist Association office was approved. The proposed budget for 1988 was approved and recommended to the Association in annual session in October 1987. A very active and ambitious associational calendar of events was approved for 1987-88. It was noted that the dedication and open house of the new EBA office was covered well in the July 11, 1987, issue of the Biblical Recorder.

WMU Report

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms (I Peter 4:10 NIV)". From Peter's letter to the Christians exiled from Jerusalem, we get our watchword for 1986-87. The watchword calls us to commitment--a renewed commitment to Jesus Christ.

To fulfill our purpose in WMU, we must be dedicated to teach missions, to engage in mission action and personal witnessing, to support missions, and to support our church and denomination. Twelve associational leaders were trained at Kinston in August. These officers taught church WMU leaders in September.

A Foreign Mission Study Institute was held on October 23, 1986, at Johnson Baptist Church. Teachers for each age level shared teaching methods. Total attendance 26. Refreshments were served by the ladies from Johnson Baptist Church.

The Christmas gift of stamps for NC Correctional Center for Women was an associational mission action project again this year.

The Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women have been involved in several associational Missions Development Program projects.

First Baptist Church, Mount Olive hosted the WMU Annual Session on April 23, 1987. Twenty-two churches were represented with 150 present. Our heartfelt thanks goes to the ladies of Mount Olive Church for such a wonderful day. The meal was delicious, and the hospitality outstanding.

WMU - SBC will be celebrating 100 years on May 13-14, 1988. To begin that celebration, our Centennial Chairman, Mrs. Inez Peterson, scheduled a study of "The History of WMU, SBC". Mrs. Henry (Vivian) Simpson taught the book on August 31, 1987. She spoke at Immanuel Baptist Church at 10:00 a.m. and at Magnolia Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. One hundred and eight persons were able to relive the history of the past one hundred years.

As we go into the Centennial year, may we truly be Gifted to Serve - Called to ACT!

Respectfully submitted,
Helen Register, Director

Historical Committee Report

The Historical Committee of Eastern Baptist Association continued this year to print histories of those smaller churches who have not been printed.

We also urge every church to get a history of your church. Also, we hope you will collect all minutes and other important data and get it microfilmed free of charge at the Baptist Historical Collection of North Carolina at Wake Forest University. This provides for your church safety from fire and other destruction, those priceless records of the great heritage of your church.

History of Albertson Baptist Church

Sunday Schools have proven to be an invaluable feeder source for church members and down through the ages many churches have been organized as an outgrowth of the Sabbath schools. Such was the case with Jones Chapel Missionary Baptist Church of Albertson, North Carolina.

Miss Maggie O'Daniel conducted a Sunday School in her home about the years 1899-1901 inclusively. Also Malcolm Grady conducted a Sunday School at O'Daniel School. A union Sunday School was conducted in a new school building about the years 1909-1910. There were six or eight of these who were of the Missionary Baptist faith.

Thad Jones of Kenansville began preaching in the O'Daniel School building in the early 1900s. Minutes show that the actual organization of the church took place June 30, 1912, with 14 males and 20 females as charter members. The newly constituted church called as its first pastor, Thad Jones, who had been instrumental in the organization of the church. However, not being a licensed minister, Mr. Jones accepted only to serve as layman until the church could secure a regular ordained minister.

The first revival service was conducted that fall by Mr. Jones, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. Hood of Wayne County, with the music under the direction of organist Malcolm Grady. Several members were added to the church on profession of faith.

In March 1917, Rev. I.T. Stroud was elected minister. Following him was a Dr. Floyd, Rev. Floyd Holloway, and a Rev. Harris. Due to many changes in the residents of the neighborhood and a scarcity of ministers, the church went through a dormant period. This was followed by a new Sunday School organized in 1925 or 1926.

A decision was reached in 1938 to relocate the church. The building was sold and a site selected three miles north of the original church on a lot given by Rev. Stroud. Dr. Jones of Virginia, son of the founder, Thad Jones, gave one hundred dollars toward the construction of the building which was completed under the guidance of Rev. J. Lonnie Powers, originally of Robeson County.

Following Rev. Powers as pastor were many ministerial students from Wake Forest College. Then came Rev. Lauren Sharpe, Rev. Eugene Hager, Rev. James Hathorne, Rev. Bill Seaton, Rev. Willie Shepard, and Rev. DeLeon Butler of Jacksonville, NC who served from 1962-1967.

In November 1968, the church called Rev. Paul Rose as pastor. He served until June 1976. Under the leadership of Rev. Paul Rose the church grew tremendously and also changed the name from Jones Chapel Missionary Baptist Church to Albertson Missionary Baptist Church.

Following Rev. Rose were Rev. Warren Tilghman from the Kennedy Home, Rev. Herman Coker, Rev. Caleb Goodwin, and Rev. Thomas Jones.

In November 1986, the church called the Rev. James W. (Jimmy) Johnson of Wallace as pastor. In June 1987, the church voted to give three percent of all undesignated offerings to the Eastern Baptist Association, and will increase its support of the Cooperative Program and continue its record of giving liberally to all other Southern Baptist Mission causes.

EBA Office Building Planning Committee Report

In 1986 the Eastern Baptist Association voted to accept the offer of the Warsaw Baptist Church to renovate the upstairs of the old education building and use this space as the Office/Conference Center of the Eastern Baptist Association.

The Associational Moderator, Mrs. Lucille Yancey, appointed a building planning committee to be composed of Jake Carroll, Don Puryear, Felton Baker, Jeanette Benton, Frank Steed, with Tony Gurganus as chairman. After many planning meetings, the committee presented the Association its recommendation for the plans to be used in the renovation. Upon approval of these plans the committee advertised for bids from contractors to do the work. Don Puryear, a general contractor presented the low bid--$55,000--and was awarded the contract. The Associational Staff occupied the completed Office/Conference Center in late March 1987.

We are very grateful to the Warsaw Baptist Church for making available the upstairs of their former education building for our Associational offices. We are also thankful for the excellent fraternal relationship shared between the Eastern Association and the Duplin Medical Association, the downstairs tenants of the same building.

We are thankful to God for the harmonious way he led us in planning for, renovating, occupying and fully paying for the newly renovated Office/Conference Center for the Eastern Baptist Association. We are thankful for the cooperation and support of all the churches in the Association. Together, we have engaged in a worthy labor that will enrich the work of the Eastern Baptist Association for many years to come.

Church Training Report

Church Training is the organization assigned the task of helping church members, new church members, and church leaders (also potential leaders) to grow in their Christian discipleship. The Church Training Program complements other church programs thereby enhancing the total work of the church.

The Church Training Program has responsibility for teaching in five major content areas. These are: Christian Doctrine, Christian Ethics, Christian History, Church Polity and Organization, and Skill Development.

During this past year Church Training in our Association:

1. Sent two consultants, Adult and Children, to a Key Leadership Conference.
2. Sent the Children's consultant to a Bible Skills Rally to prepare her for Bible Drill leadership.
3. Sponsored "M" Night, a Church Training rally. Attendance was 150. Dr. Bruce Powers, Professor of Christian Education at Southeastern Seminary, was the featured speaker.
4. Sponsored Youth and Children's Bible Drill. First Baptist Church of Mount Olive, Rowan, and First Baptist Church of Wallace participated in our Associational Tournament, held at Calvary Baptist.
5. Sponsored an "Inspiration and Perspiration" Association Field Day Rally for youth in our Association.

6. Sponsored "Children's Day" for Grades 1-6 in our Association.
7. Purchased additional Equipping Center Modules for the Association's lending library.

Goals of our Association Church Training Program include: 1. Begin new Church Training Programs. 2. Strongly promote the drills and tournaments, increasing the number of churches with participants. 3. Reach 200 at our annual "M" Night, set for November 23, First Baptist Church, Clinton.

To strengthen the Church Training Program of our Association and to begin new programs and groups we have an excellent Church Training Council. They are available to serve the churches of Eastern Baptist Association. Please let us help you by informing us of the particular training needs of your church.

Sunday School Report

Our attention is continuing to focus on "Challenge 10/90". The challenge is to reach a Sunday School enrollment in the SBC of 10 million by the year 1990. Our own Associational goal is to grow by five percent each year through 1990.

Last year your ASSISTeam either as a whole or individuals helped at least 25 percent of the churches in our Association. The ASSISTeam is ready to help even more churches this coming year.

Harry Piland, in introducing the theme for this year's work made this remark, "Touch Lives . . . Change People" is the theme for 1987-88. It is not only a part of 'Challenge 10/90' emphasis, but more importantly it is the intent and purpose of Jesus Christ our Lord." According to Luke 5:31 and Luke 19:10, Harry Piland is right on target.

We have again begun to show a loss in Sunday School enrollment in our Association. Let's turn that trend around this year and "Touch Lives" for Christ. Set church goals in enrolling people in your Sunday School. Your ASSISTeam is ready to help you in your desire to reach people for Bible Study. Each member on the team is looking forward to working as partners with you in the Lord's work through the Sunday School.

Brotherhood Report

The Brotherhood Program in Eastern Baptist Association has been branching out this year with several churches beginning new Brotherhood programs or regenerating old ones. The Brotherhood leadership has been to training sessions at Kinston and Ridgecrest. This year Baptist Men's program was highlighted by our Baptist Men's Rally held at Rowan Baptist Church. The meal provided by First Church, Clinton, Immanuel, Grove Park and Rowan churches was great. The special music furnished through the voices of the Warsaw

Baptist Men's Choir was spectacular. Mr. Norman Cavender of Claxton, GA, was our guest speaker. His message inspired us to seek our heritage as Baptists.

Plans are now being made for our Rally next year to be held at First Church, Clinton on January 16, 1988. Mr. David Langford, Brotherhood Director of the State Baptist Convention, will be our guest speaker.

Migrant Ministry Committee Report

". . . there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repents." (Luke 15:10). Just think of the joy and rejoicing that has been going on in heaven, as a result of a successful summer of Migrant Ministry! As a result of the summer ministry 123 Hispanics made professions of faith in Jesus Christ. This was made possible only by the help of you as individuals and churches working together.

The Lord blessed us with a good team of student summer missionaries. Four students, all from Campbell University, made up the team with Cathy Hopkins doing much of the coordinating. The summer missionaries were Orpha Ortega, Roberto Rubi, Melissa Dancy and Kemuel Pruitt. Besides these full-time summer workers there were eight Christian Service Corps Volunteers; 26 churches in the EBA were involved in some way. Food, clothing, health kits, Bibles, and infant kits were distributed. Backyard Bible Clubs and; ministry through the North Duplin Summer Enrichment School reached many children with the Good News that Jesus loves them.

Worship services were held at the Kings Methodist Church each Tuesday night. Thanks to the preaching of Robert Rubi and William Ortega, many came to know Jesus Christ. Appreciation is extended to the Goldsboro Methodist District for the use of the Kings Building.

On August 13 the annual summer Migrant Ministry volunteers appreciation Pig-Pickin' was held. About 125 people gathered at First Church, Clinton for this end of summer celebration.

The Migrant Committee wishes to thank all of you for making this possible. Thank you for your prayers and your giving.

A trip to the North Carolina Mountains, "Singing in the Smokies," was planned by the committee and 32 persons enjoyed the three-day tour.

Our first annual picnic was held September 25, 1986, at Royal Lane Park in Clinton. It was such a success that we planned our second annual picnic for September 24, 1987.

We need your help and prayers to encourage more Senior Adults to take advantage of the opportunities we are trying to provide.

The annual Christmas banquet for mentally handicapped was held at First Baptist, Clinton and attended by 30 adults who live in four group homes, Senior Village and Skilled Creations in Sampson and Duplin counties.

Two churches, Calvary, Warsaw and First, Clinton have Sunday School classes for mentally handicapped.

Pat Brown and Judie Pardue attended the VBS clinic in Bladenboro and received training in working with the mentally handicapped.

An August 10 - 14 VBS at First, Clinton attended by 27 adults was a successful, happy climax to the year's ministries.

Literacy Ministries Committee Report

Several ladies are working with individual pupils on English as a second language at the present time.

In May, nine ladies were trained in ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) by LLA (Laubach Literacy Action) tutor trainer, Miriam Lamb. These ladies became members of LLA, U.S. Program of Laubach Literacy International upon completion of the workshop.

The Literacy Committee will plan other workshops and hopes to get other trained tutors as people become more aware of this great need and it is hoped that these pupils can someday read God's Word.

Hispanic Mission Report - First Baptist Church, Clinton

The Hispanic Mission has experienced another year of numerical growth and growing stabililty as it enters its third year. In numbers, the mission has moved from a high of 78 last summer to a high of 100 this summer. And, even after the summer, the attendance is near what used to be high attendance. In stability, families are being located, who remain in the area and stability is evident in faithfulness and excitement.

In July of this year we started a radio program in Spanish called "Let's Just Praise the Lord" that has been a great blessing for the Hispanic Community. Through this program we have reached people in Sampson, Duplin, Wayne and Johnston counties. Our radio program has been possible thanks to the support of Mr. Bob Briggs, member at Rowan Baptist Church.

Thanks to the First Baptist Church, Clinton, Baptist State Convention of N.C. and Eastern Baptist Association who help us to reach my people for Jesus Christ.

We continue to appreciate your support and prayer for this important ministry.

Church Music Report

During the 1986-87 year, the majority of our 40 churches experienced growth in their music ministry enrollment of 10 percent or more. This one fact shows evidence of growth in our Association. It also means that more people are sharing the message of Christ through song and becoming leaders in worship services.

A training session for church pianists was held so that those who participated might become more proficient at the keyboard.

It was also stressed that all musicians - choir directors, choir members, accompanists -are on a mission when they proclaim Christ as Lord through the medium of song. Our goal as Christians is that everyone may learn of HIM.

Seminary Extension Report

Eastern Baptists had a great beginning year for our Seminary Extension work. From January through June 1987 we offered five classes, enrolled 42 students from eight different denominations. Persons were trained in how to understand the Bible, biblical backgrounds, and clinical pastoral care. This is an excellent beginning!

Our Seminary Extension center is one of 512 certified centers across the Southern Baptist Convention. This year over 10,000 people were enrolled through our centers. We are providing vital biblical and theological education for laypersons and pastors. This is of paramount importance if our denomination is to continue to provide quality leadership to our churches.

This academic year (August through July) we plan to offer at least six additional classes, possibly more if there is interest. Courses currently being offered this year are Old Testament Survey and New Testament Survey. As we build on our foundation we hope to expand our center to meet the learning/educational needs of more people in our Association and thus help Eastern Baptist Association move forward in Bold Mission Thrust.

These five ministers were among the list of persons from our churches who passed away during this past associational year.

Their deaths were but a journey to another land, but they are not gone who passed beyond the clasp of hand. They are not lost who found the sunset gate, the goal of their faithful years. We cannot think of them as dead who walk no more with us. Along the path of life we tread, they have but gone before. The Father's House is mansioned fair beyond our vision dim; all souls are His, and here or there are living unto Him. Still their ministries within our hearts have place, as when, on earth they walked with us and met us face to face. Their sermons may be destroyed but their ministries will never cease this side of eternity. No fire can consume the love they awakened, no change of time can obliterate what they have spoken in the name of Christ; for a part of their lives and labors were like their souls—immortal.

And now, just away but over yonder, over in those realms of light, where all life is clothed with splendor, and never more is night. Over there we soon will join them! What a welcome will be ours!

So, we say to them: Your days have come—not gone; your sun has risen—not set; your life is now beyond the reach of death, of change, not ended—but just begun. O noble souls, O gentle hearts! Hail and farewell!

WMU Report

"A Century to Celebrate - A Future to Fulfill" was the theme of WMU-SBC this year - many churches in our association celebrated by quilting, depicting 100 years of WMU.

Mrs. Inez Peterson, Centennial chairwoman, led us in a prayer retreat at First Baptist Church, Clinton, on February 20, 1988. Mrs. Hope Christian was our speaker.

On May 13-15, WMU-SBC celebrated its birthday in Richmond, Virginia. Mrs. Inez Peterson was our official representative. Several ladies were in attendance at that gathering. Those who could not attend were invited to Rowan Baptist Church on Saturday, May 14th to view the celebration on BTN. After the showing, refreshments were served. Our appreciation to Rowan Baptist Church for their hospitality.

Three WMU officers were trained at Caraway on July 31. Eleven WMU officers were trained at the Kinston Leadership Training session. These leaders led the conference for the Associational WMU Leadership Training at Warsaw Baptist Church on September 15.

The Annual WMU Session met at Sharon, with Shiloh assisting. That report is included in the associational minutes.

Respectfully submitted,
Helen Register, WMU Director

Brotherhood Report

The Eastern Baptist Association's Brotherhood had another good year. Several churches in our association began Brotherhood groups or reorganized old groups. We had Baptist Men's groups doing mission work in several areas such as building new churches in New York and assisting with the Eastern Baptist Association's Migrant Ministry.

Again this year we held an Associational Baptist Men's Rally at First Church, Clinton. Mr. David Langford, North Carolina State Brotherhood Director, was our guest speaker Over 250 people attended and were treated to a delicious meal and blessed by the fellowship and worship of the evening. We are grateful to all those who assisted with the rally to make it a great success.

Historical Committee Report

The Historical Committee of Eastern Baptist Association continued this year to print histories of those churches which have not been printed.

We also urge every church to prepare a history of your church. Also, we hope you will collect all minutes and other important data and get it microfilmed free of charge at the Baptist Historical Collection of North Carolina at Wake Forest University. This provides for the preservation of those priceless records which are the great heritage of your church.

History of Center Baptist Church

Located on Highway 411 at Clear Run, North Carolina
Mailing address Route 1, Garland, North Carolina

(Legend as to beginning - due to loss of early written records, part of the following is by recollection and interviews with community members.)

Picture, if you will, the turn of the century around 1900, a bustling little community located on the Black River by the name of Clear Run. There was a post office, cotton gin, stores and most important of all, the steamboat of Captain Amos Johnson plying the Black River into the Cape Fear River and down to Wilmington. Twice weekly the steamboat took tar, pitch, turpentine, hogs, cattle, and other merchandise to and from the ports of Wilmington and Clear Run. The merchandise supplied all the stores of the area including Clinton, Garland and Harrells with the needs and wants of the area. There were country roads, horses and wagons, buggies and good country people.

But, alas, the most important thing was missing. The nearest church was Siloam at Harrells or Lisbon in the fork of Big Coharie and Six Runs (near Lisbon Bridge today). It was further than five miles to any church. Brother Columbus Robinson, a native of the area, decided an active community like this - a focal point for many - should have a local church; a church that would be more accessible. Thus the idea was born, the word spread, action was taken. Brother C.I Robinson, son of Columbus, took the lead and was most instrumental in seeing the church come to life. Later, he served our association for years in many capacities. A little group of the Robinsons, Johnsons, Blackburns, Sykes, Herrings and others met to get things going. They decided upon the name of Center because this spot was halfway between Siloam and Lisbon Churches. They elected deacons and held meetings for an indefinite period of time. On November 1, 1901, Mr. William E. Herring and wife, Agnes, deeded the land of Center Baptist Church to the deacons who were presently serving. They were: Lucian Herring, G.B. Sykes and C.I. Robinson.

In the formative years, itinerant preachers held services as they passed through the area. In 1906, Center Baptist Church joined the Eastern Association along with Alpine and Beulah in 1907. Brother Henry Carter became the regular preacher. He walked from Garland, a distance of seven or eight miles, to preach one Sunday in each month. He also walked to White Lake and preached there once a month. Rommy Kelly, N.D. Blackman and a Mr. Cobb followed him as preachers.

Rev. J. Herman Barnes (wife Pauline) served 1925-1930.
Rev. W.D. Morris (wife Sallie Bell Getty) served 1930-1933.
Rev. Dr. R.F. Marshburn (wife Olivia) served 1934-1970.
Rev. W.B. Shipp (wife Joyce) served part of 1971.
Rev. Robert Earl Hill (wife Doris) served 1972-August 1985.
Rev. J. Albert Pope (wife Ruth) served October 1985 - present.

Center Baptist folk lay no claim to fame. It is just a rural country church whose members love one another. We have no trophies to lay at the world's feet to prove our greatness. We simply glory in the fact that God loves us just as we are. PRAISE GOD.

Hickory Grove Missionary Baptist Church

In the late 1880s a small group of courageous families of what is now known as the Herring Community of Sampson County became concerned about a meeting place where they could learn more about God - a place to which they could direct their spiritual souls for nourishment and a little plot which would claim their physical bodies when earthly life was finished. Probably, among this interested party were names such as Warren, Herring, McLamb, Gilbert, Weeks, Naylor, Tew, Strickland and other local family names which date back for several generations. Available records do not reveal to whom credit is due for planning, organizing, and building the church which records do show was constituted in 1889.

It is reported that one of the first, if not the first, service was held in a little grove which was to become the site of the church. The preacher on this occasion is said to have placed his Bible on a stump which served as a lectern. In 1889, the church was constituted and took the name of Hickory Grove Missionary Baptist Church. The name probably came from the large hickory trees which were numerous in the immediate area at that time. All available records indicate that no other church was involved in any way in organizing and building Hickory Grove.

Records do not reveal the date the first building was completed, but church minutes of 1892 indicate the building was being used. The original structure serves as the sanctuary of the present building. The church never served the dual role that many churches served because a school was built on an adjoining site.

Throughout the years, the church has undergone three major remodeling jobs. The first phase, completed in 1935, added two classrooms to the side of the church. The addition of six classrooms and two bathrooms to the back of the original structure was completed in 1949. The third phase, completed in 1958, added two classrooms, vestibule, and porch to the front of the original structure. Stained windows were also added at this time. The church has also been involved in two new building projects. An eight room parsonage was completed in 1966 and an educational building was completed and furnished in 1972.

Hickory Grove has been fortunate in having able pastors to serve the church throughout the years. A list of the pastors and their tenure of service follows:

Hickory Grove Baptist Church has long enjoyed a remarkable relationship with churches of other denominations in the immediate area, and together, they have created a spiritual climate conducive for the good life. Over the years, this spirit has been transplanted in many areas of our state, our nation, and our world, as members have gone out and settled in other communities and joined with other churches. Hickory Grove is proud of the expanded influence God has made possible and trusts that He will continue to use the church in making His will known to mankind.

Literacy Ministries Committee Report

Literacy Ministries for the past year in EBA has been work with English as a Second Language and Laubach Basic Reading and Writing. Several families are being helped weekly through this ministry. Not only has literacy skills teaching taken place, but a ministry of love has been shown to these families by our faithful tutors. Food, clothing, and other expressions of love have been shared with the students.

The Literacy Ministries Committee has made several trips to meet with Regional Literacy Councils in North Carolina to become more informed about literacy needs and resources.

We need committed tutors. Would you volunteer? You could make a difference.

Volunteer Chaplain Ministries Committee Report

The year 1988 has been a busy year for volunteer chaplains. As a result of our Mission Sermon last year we have filled two volunteer chaplain positions, one at Whaley's Rest Home and one at Wallace Care Center. Price Knowles of Corinth Church volunteered as the chaplain at Whaley's and Rev. Paul Mull of Cedar Fork Church of the New River Association volunteered to be his assistant. Rev. Harvey Blanton of Island Creek Church volunteered to be the chaplain at the Wallace Care Center and James Basden of Wallace Church of God volunteered to be his assistant. Numerous memorial services have been conducted at all of our nursing homes along with many, many visits. The number of pastors visiting the nursing homes has been about the same this year. However, we have many new pastors in our association and they do not appear to be aware of the tremendous needs in our nursing homes. Several of our volunteer chaplains have been ill this past year themselves and we have not had anyone to step into the gaps as we would like to have. We encourage anyone who would be interested in becoming a volunteer chaplain to please contact the new Volunteer Chaplain Committee Chairman, Gerald Garris of Poplar Grove at 736-1825 or call the EBA office at 293-7077.

We now have chaplains at Guardian Care Nursing Home, Meadowbrook Manor, Wallace Care Center, Whaley Rest Home, and at the Duplin Correctional Unit. We praise God for those who have stepped forward to volunteer as chaplains for these units. However, we are still getting requests for volunteer chaplains at Duplin General Hospital Skilled Care Unit and the Psychiatric Care Unit. We still need volunteer chaplains at Sampson County Hospital, Mary Gran Nursing Center and the Sampson County Prison Unit in Clinton. We are also in need of assistant chaplains at Guardian Care, Meadowbrook Manor and Wallace Care Center in Wallace.

We are looking forward to increased participation in the Volunteer Chaplaincy Ministry program in the coming year. We thank God for His blessings of the past year and look forward to Him doing greater works through His committed people.

Senior Adult Ministries Committee Report

The year 1987-88 has been a good one for the Senior Adult Ministry of EBA. The committee met for planning on six occasions.

The advanced planning of the September 27, 1987, picnic was carried out and was successful.

The third annual picnic is planned for September 29, 1988.

The Senior Adult Ministry participated in the programs of the Annual Associational Evening Session on October 27, 1987, held at Corinth Church.

The EBA Senior Adults were well represented in Greensboro on April 12 and 13, 1988, for the Foreign Mission Appointment Service.

A rally for Senior Adults was held on March 17, 1988, at the Wells Chapel Church with about 200 in attendance.

Another such rally is scheduled for March 16, 1989, with Poston Church being host.

Many of us attended the WMU Centennial Celebration in Richmond, Virginia on May 13 and 14, 1988.

We plan to enjoy a retreat at Camp Caraway on October 17-19, 1988.

We were also represented at a "Mission Fair" sponsored by Calvary Church.

Many Senior Adults in EBA are enjoying the spiritual fellowship provided in these events. We find it very rewarding. The cooperation and prayer support has been great and we thank each one who has had a part.

Hopefully all churches in the association will organize a Senior Adult Group and also participate in the associational events.

Prayerfully,
Eunice E. Newkirk, Chairman

Deaf Ministries Committee Report

Invitations were extended to the deaf and hearing impaired for the areawide Annual November Banquet at Poston Church. Fifty deaf people were in attendance.

The Deaf Ministry was represented at a Missions Fair at Calvary Church in May.

We are praying that a church in another area of the association will catch a vision and begin a deaf ministry in their church. Please call on our committee for assistance.

Deaf Mission - Poston Church

The year 1987-88 has been a good year at the Deaf Mission. An areawide banquet was hosted by Poston Baptist Church in November, with Neal Peyton, Special Ministries Director, BSC of NC, as guest speaker, and 50 deaf people in attendance.

Rev. Arledge Castles resigned from Poston May 1st to accept a ministry in Raleigh supported by First Baptist and Hayes Barton Churches. He will continue his secular job. He graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in May. There were 15 deaf from Poston attending the graduation and a tea at the Castles' home in Youngsville, NC, hosted by Mrs. Castles. Warsaw Baptist Church donated its van and Mary Lee Jones drove the group. Our thanks to them.

The work continues at Poston Baptist Church with Rev. Donald Coley leading a worship service during the Sunday School hour, with Ben Hilliard interpreting. The group alternates in teaching the Sunday School lesson. They are growing spiritually. There has been one profession of faith.

Please pray for the Deaf Mission as we seek to secure the person God is leading to be our new pastor.

Thank you, EBA, for your continued support.

Hispanic Mission Report - First Baptist Church, Clinton

The Hispanic Mission has experienced another year of numerical growth and growing stability as it enters its fourth year. The average attendance this summer was 80. And, even after the summer, the attendance has been good. In stability, families are being located, who remain in the area year round and stability is evident in faithfulness and excitement. Now we have 36 members. This last August we baptized six people, and others attending are considering making this decision.

In the beginning of the year 1988 we named some members of our mission to serve in different positions in the Mission. Also, some have learned the responsibility of tithing, even though most of our families have financial problems.

Like the last year, this year our radio program has been of great blessing for the Hispanic Community. Now, also, we have started a week night worship service with Bible study on Thursday nights at Calvary Baptist Church in Warsaw. Thanks to Calvary Church for letting us use their building for these services.

How you and groups in your churches can help us:

1. We need more Bibles in Spanish
2. We need people who can teach English to our people
3. The majority of our members have gotten their permanent residence or permission to work from the new law of Immigration and Naturalizations. Now they need permanent jobs, so they can stay here all year round with us. I think that some of you have your own businesses, or you might be a manager of some business, or maybe you know someone who needs workers. Please, give the opportunity to the Hispanic to have a permanent job. The agricultural work has finished and the winter is coming when the Hispanics have more economic problems. That is the reason why they have to live in other places to keep working, so they can survive.

We appreciate your support and sincere prayers for this vital ministry to the Hispanic Community.

William Ortega, Pastor

Mentally Handicapped Ministries Committee Report

Six events were planned and carried out during the year in ministry to the mentally handicapped.

Four theme fellowships were held at Warsaw, Grove Park, Evergreen and FBC, Clinton, with refreshments served by Immanuel at FBC, Clinton.

The annual Christmas banquet was held at Rowan with 60 guests attending. Bill Voorhees, a New Bern pastor and ventriloquist, entertained the group. Clinton area churches provided the meal which was served by the Mission Action group of FBC, Clinton.

An August Vacation Bible School was held at FBC, Clinton with 27 pupils and five leaders attending. A hot dog supper was provided by Clinton area churches.

Two churches, Calvary and FBC, Clinton, continue to have Sunday School classes for mentally handicapped.

Our Happiness Singers sang at the 1987 EBA Annual Meeting.

Our chairperson, Judie Pardue, resigned in early spring due to relocating to Virginia.

Migrant Ministries Committee Report

Again this year, heaven is rejoicing over the 56 new believers who have been added to God's family in summer migrant ministry. Through the many hours of hard work by our summer workers, prayers, financial support and cooperation of the churches of the Eastern Baptist Association, we have had a successful summer ministry.

We had four full-time summer workers plus Rev. William Ortega who led the weekly worship services at Kings Methodist Church. Three summer workers were college students: Ken Nicely, a William and Mary junior from Troutville, Virginia; Jill Jenkins, a Campbell University junior from Zebulon, North Carolina; Len Leaphart, a sophomore at Western Carolina University from Apex, North Carolina. Our fourth worker was Florence Garcia, a dorm-coordinator at our Hispanic Baptist Seminary in San Antonio, Texas. Besides these full-time workers there were three Christian Service Corps Volunteers.

Food, clothing, health kits, Bibles and infant kits were distributed. Backyard Bible Clubs and a children's ministry through North Duplin Summer Enrichment School were means used to reach people with the Good News.

We were blessed with a house trailer that was moved on the grounds of Kings Methodist Church for use with the ministry to children on Tuesday nights. Thanks to the Baptist Men from Immanuel and Mount Olive First who painted and did the necessary repairs to make the trailer usable.

On August 11, we held our annual Migrant Ministry volunteers appreciation pig-pickin' at First Church, Clinton with about 120 people present.

Thank you Eastern Baptist Association churches, Cathy Hopkins, Goldsboro Methodist District, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and all who participated in any way to make the summer of '88 a time of reaching many with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Farrell Miller, Chairman

Church Music Report

During the past year, your associational music director has helped in the following associational events:

1. Planned, provided and led the special music for the annual meeting on October 26-27, 1987, including the "Happiness Singers" (mentally handicapped adults).
2. Led the congregational singing at the Baptist Men's Rally on January 16, 1988.
3. Led the congregational singing and helped with the special music for the Senior Adult Rally on March 17.
4. Led the music for the Evangelism Rally on September 12, including a 160-voice choir consisting of choir members from 25 churches.
5. Led the congregational singing at the Senior Adult Picnic on September 29.

From our 40 churches, 39 reported church music enrollment on the annual letter. While this is commendable, let us strive to make it 100 percent this year.

On March 14-15, I attended the Lay Evangelism School sponsored by our association. From this training, I was reminded that the Great Commission is for everyone - pastors, teachers, - all Christians. Let us strive to reach the lost people in our world through the special gifts given us by our Lord.

Church Training is the organization assigned the task of helping church members, new church members and church leaders (also potential leaders) to grow in their Christian discipleship. The Church Training program complements other Church Training programs thereby enhancing the total work of the church.

The Church Training program has responsibility for teaching in five major content areas. These are: Christian Doctrine, Christian Ethics, Christian History, Church Polity and Organization and Skill Development.

During this past year Church Training in our Association:

1. Sponsored M Night in November 1987. Theme: "Living in the Spirit." Featured speakers were Charles Pope, FBC, Clinton; Glen Brogden, FBC, Mount Olive and David Moore, Warsaw Baptist.
2. Sponsored an Associational Youth Rally at Grove Park Baptist, March 1988. Program feature: The "Covenant Players," Christian Drama Team.
3. Sent 13 children and two youth to Children's/Youth Bible Drill as representatives of our Association.
4. Sent four team members to the Enabler's Conference at Caraway, November 1987.

5. Purchased additional Equipping Center Modules for the Association's lending library. A Church Training representative shared the available resources at a Pastors' Conference.

Goals adopted by the Church Training team for 1988-1989 are:

3. Reach 200 at our annual M Night on November 28, 1988.
4. Highlight the New Member Training materials in the Church Training program.
5. Emphasize the annual Doctrine study: The Doctrines Baptists Believe in the Spring of 1989. Increase the percentage of churches offering this study to 75 percent.

To strengthen the Church Training program of our association and to begin new programs and groups, we have an excellent Church Training Council. They are available to serve the churches of Eastern Association. Please let us help you by informing us of the particular training needs of your church.

Seminary Extension Report

Almost half of all Southern Baptist pastors still do not have seminary training. The percentage is even higher for other church staff members. Eastern Baptist Association helped respond to this need during 1987-88 by sponsoring a Seminary Extension center. It was one of almost 400 such centers all across the United States, bringing basic theological studies within easy reach of every Southern Baptist. The Eastern Association Christian Education Center has been in operation since 1986.

Randy Outland is director of the center. Other members of the Seminary Extension Committee this year were Gene Lakey, Paula Matthis, David Moore, James Pardue, Carl Price, and Mary Evelyn Wells. The director and committee are responsible for the local administration of the center, including the selection and scheduling of courses and the enlistment of teachers. Course materials are developed by the Seminary Extension Department, which also establishes uniform educational standards for all the centers. The Seminary Extension Department is a jointly sponsored ministry of the six Southern Baptist seminaries. The department also makes its courses available for correspondence study.

Plans are in the making to make available courses to meet the learning/educational needs of laypersons and pastors and staff in our association.

Evangelism Committee Report

The Evangelism Committee of Eastern Baptist Association met on several occasions this past year. We were able to achieve at least two significant things. In the spring of the year, March 14 and 15, 1988, we conducted a Lay Evangelism School led by John Maisenhelder and Justin Jones. Seventeen men and women were involved in this training and were certified to lead L.E.S. in our local churches.

Our second special event was the Evangelism Rally on September 12. This was a time of great inspiration and blessing. Four hundred and sixty-nine people gathered. The highlight of the event was the 160 voice choir led by Jean Hatch, and the preaching of J.W. Hutchens, Director of Evangelism for our state. The choir and the congregation was made up of representatives from almost all of our churches.

It was and is our desire to keep the importance of Evangelism in the forefront of the minds and hearts of Eastern Association Baptists, both as churches and individuals.

Pray for your new committee as they will be charged with making plans leading up to Here's Hope simultaneous revivals in 1990.

Frank Turner, Chairman

Cooperative Program Report

The COOPERATIVE PROGRAM is a partnership between churches, State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention. Cooperation - it is a concept deeply imbedded in the history of Southern Baptists. But Cooperation is an idea that is much older than Southern Baptists. Examples of cooperation abound in the New Testament. Paul reminded the Corinthian Christians that "we are laborers together with God." Cooperation has been the plan of God through the years to get His work done.

Cooperative Program: The "Cooperative" part says that Baptists have agreed to work together to witness to the whole world. The "Program" part says that Baptists have a plan for world mission support that begins right here at home and spreads around the world.

YES! EVERY DOLLAR you and your church give through the Cooperative Program strengthens and expands missions in 113 countries of the world. The Cooperative Program is vital to the missionaries, to the 14,000 students in our six Baptist Seminaries, and to hundreds of other ministries through our state conventions and associations.

YES! Your church's giving does make the difference! By itself, your church's ministry may be limited. But, through the Cooperative Program, Together with other churches, your church can strive to preach the Gospel of Christ to every person by the year 2000.

1990 Simultaneous Revival Steering Committee Report

HERE'S HOPE: JESUS CARES FOR YOU

The Simultaneous Revivals of March 18-25, 1990, will be a success only if we begin now to prepare for them. Every church in our association should begin now to prepare. Your church should be enlisting an evangelist for these revival efforts today.

Another sure step for success is for each church to train its lay people to witness. This can easily be done through the Lay Evangelism School. Let's all start today to bring hope to our nation by joining hands in this effort to share Jesus Christ.

John D. Maisenhelder, Chairman

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association is, through mutual assistance of member churches, to enhance spiritual growth and development by involvement in missions, education, evangelism, stewardship and fellowship.

There are several kinds of servants.

1. Unprofitable servant. He is given one talent and fails to use it.
2. Unfaithful servant. He was guaranteed all he needed to be faithful, but wanted more than he had.
3. Ungrateful servant. Although forgiven of a huge debt, he failed to forgive another of a smaller debt.

Resolutions Committee Report

Whereas, Rev. William C. Lamb has served faithfully as Director of Missions of the Eastern Baptist Association for the last four years; and

Whereas, due to continuing health problems and increasing responsibilities for the care of family, Rev. Lamb has regretfully resigned as Director of Missions, Eastern Baptist Association, effective October 31, 1989; and

Whereas, the Executive Board of the Eastern Baptist Association on September 7, 1989, unanimously commended Rev. and Mrs. Lamb for their excellent leadership in the Eastern Baptist Association, and voted unanimously their support in facilitating their transition to retirement;

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. That the 162nd Annual Session of the Eastern Baptist Association express to Rev. William C. Lamb its deepest appreciation for his strong leadership in the area of evangelism, for the tremendous contribution to the strengthening of our spirit of cooperation and unity, for his wise counsel to pastors, church staff, and members of the Eastern Baptist Association Churches, for his gift of encouragement, for his commitment to missions, and for his commitment to the proclamation of the Gospel in both word and deed;
2. That the 162nd Annual Session of the Eastern Baptist Association express to Mrs. Miriam Lamb its highest appreciation for her sacrificial support of her husband, her family, and the Eastern Baptist Association family. For her special ministry to ministers' wives, especially to working ministers' wives, for her contributions to the Baptist Young Women, and literacy missions in our ministry area. For her contagious Christian love for all people, expressed uniquely in her special care for and encouragement of the people of the Eastern Baptist Association;
3. That the Eastern Baptist Association convey its sadness over the premature retirement of Rev. and Mrs. Lamb and its tremendous loss felt on this occasion. We will forever be grateful for all the Lord has done for us through the giftedness and service of the Lambs. The Eastern Baptist Association pledges its prayerful support of the Lambs as they begin a new chapter in their life together and in the Lord's service. The Eastern Baptist Association is confident of the Lord's abiding presence with, care for, and use of the Lambs in His Kingdom's work;

Whereas, The Eastern Baptist Association completing its 162nd session held October 23 and 24, 1989, with its theme of "CHURCHES LABORING TOGETHER WITH GOD;"

Now Therefore, be it further resolved:

1. That we express our sincerest gratitude to Cathy Hopkins for her leadership and sacrifice in the area of mission action development involving churches and people in reaching out to those around us who are less fortunate than ourselves. For helping us to recognize the need for proclaiming the gospel both in deed and word. For her undying devotion to the migrant ministry, senior adults, and chaplaincy ministries. For her planning and successful implementation of the Missions Fair. For her believing in people and trusting them to do God's will when given the opportunity and kept informed;
2. That we express our appreciation to Ottis King for his devotion to the responsibilities as Clerk and for his meticulous record keeping, ensuring the correctness of our history for posterity;
3. That we express our appreciation to Davis Benton for his fine leadership and planning of our Annual Sessions;
4. That we express our sincere appreciation to Jo Neal Robinson for her untiring devotion to her work as Association Secretary and for the untold hours she has spent on her own time completing the tasks necessary for our Association to carry out its mission and that she be commended for her outstanding performance even in the face of extreme personal difficulty in caring for her dear husband who is recovering from recent open heart surgery;
5. That we express our sincere thanks to the host churches, Faison, assisted by Calypso and Poplar Grove, and Garland, assisted by Center and Ingold, for their scrumptious home cooked meals, their Christian hospitality, and the use of their facilities;
6. Finally, that our appreciation be expressed to the messengers who have taken the time to attend and facilitate the business of this Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Ernest L. Johnson, Jr., Chairman
Gene Lakey

WMU Report

WMU - even the entire church - has celebrated the WMU Centennial in a grand and glorious style - as we look ahead to a new century, our focus beams in on the phrase, "A Future to Fulfill."

WMU's three missions tasks remain the same: teach missions; engage in mission action and personal witnessing; and support missions. Associational WMU leaders have challenged church WMU officers to strengthen missions in the church and denomination. The following activities have been accomplished through associational WMU leadership this year:

1. Associational WMU leadership training
2. Church WMU leadership training
3. Prayer retreat - Turkey Baptist Church - Dr. I. Ruth Martin leading
4. Mission Action Fair - Rowan - WMU Booth
5. WMU Annual Session - Johnson Church with Calvary assisting
6. Baptist Women - Open House - Mary Hester Powell (featuring Nigerian souvenirs)

7. Baptist Young Women - Hispanic picnic at Royal Lane Park, Clinton
8. GA Rally - Mount Vernon - Karen Outland, leader

My appreciation to each of the officers who have given of their time and abilities to strengthen or enhance the involvement of women and girls in missions commitment.

Respectfully submitted,
Helen Register, Director

Brotherhood Report

The Eastern Baptist Association's Brotherhood had another good year in many ways. We had men and boys' groups involved in many areas of mission work. Some of the high moments were: (1) the Baptist Men's Rally at Turkey with Bob Shields from Rocky Mount as our speaker. We had over 200 in attendance for a delicious meal and an encouraging spiritual program. Rev. Norman Wheeler and Mr. Rifton Raynor from Shiloh provided our special music. (2) Many of our men and boys' groups and several of our churches responded generously to the emergency heater fund for the Christian Care Center at Rose Hill. (3) Many also participated in the Seasonal Farmworkers Ministry of the EBA. (4) Baptist Men's Day was observed by most of our churches on January 22, 1989, with the theme, "Missions Involvement Through Evangelism." (5) Brotherhood and RA materials were distributed at the Mission Action Fair, held at Rowan on February 23, 1989.

There are many ways that men and boys were involved in missions in the EBA and the Southern Bapitst Convention. Mr. James H. Smith, Brotherhood Commission President, reported that Baptist Men served more than 95,000 meals in Mexico following Hurricane Gilbert's destruction. In Jamaica, Baptist Men worked jointly with the Foreign Mission Board to rebuild churches. More than 700 volunteers participated in this nine-month project.

World Missions Conferences were attended by 1.15 million people; 374 volunteered for missions service and 395 made professions of faith. WMCs are administerd by the Brotherhood Commission and sponsored by the Home and Foreign Mission Boards, Woman's Missionary Union, and Brotherhood Commission.

Perhaps the greatest effect of the Brotherhood Commission felt by the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention has again been the regular activities of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors. Through church and associational Brotherhoods men and boys have been involved in missions by actually doing missions activities, learning about missions, praying and giving to missions, and developing their own personal ministries. These actions have helped churches maintain integrity as God's people for God's world and have helped believing men grow in relationship to Christ. We are grateful to all who assisted the EBA men and boys in any way.

Respectfully submitted,
Jimmy Johnson

Properties Committee Report

The EBA Properties Committee made these decisions. The EBA Outdoor Sign has been completed and installed on the front lawn of the building. Also, two floor plastic pieces under desk chairs and one coat rack for the EBA Center have been purchased.

With the approval of the Executive Board and other parties involved, the large tree which hangs over the stairway to the EBA Center has been cut down and hauled away and the woodwork on the outside of the EBA building will be scraped and painted sometime this fall. EBA and Duplin Medical Association will share in one-half of the cost each with regard to any maintenance on the outside of the building located at 102 North Center Street, Warsaw, North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Steed, Chairman

History of Ingold Baptist Church

The Ingold Baptist Church is located in the village of Ingold, North Carolina. It has a rich heritage from Lisbon Baptist Church, which was organized in 1823 by Elder George Fennell and six members from Bulltail (Wells Chapel) and Rowan Baptist Churches. For 102 years Lisbon was the worship center for this community.

The Ingold Baptist Church minutes records the organization: On Sunday, at 3:00 P.M., November 1, 1925, after the disbanding of Lisbon Baptist Church, we met to form a new church, to be located in or near Ingold. Brother J.L. Stewart was elected Moderator and M.R. Herring was appointed Clerk. The Moderator asked for any other than the Lisbon members that wished to be a part of the new church and Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Pope and Mr. Garlie Cannady became the first members. A committee composed of Rev. T.H. King, Rev. G.W. Rollins and L.H. Lamb was appointed to draw up the Articles of Faith and the Church Covenant. This was done and duly adopted. These motions were also approved: The church was to be named "Ingold Baptist Church." The members will worship at Lisbon until new church is ready. A Building Committee was appointed - T.R. Burton, L.H. Lamb and M.R. Herring. The Moderator appointed Mrs. J.L. Burch, Mrs. L.H. Lamb and Mrs. J.H. Pope to nominate deacons, clerk, treasurer, and a Sunday School Superintendent. Elected as deacons were J.R. Gaddy, J.H. Pope, E.E. Marshall, T.R. Burton and J.D. McLamb. Church clerk - M.R. Herring, treasurer - L.H. Lamb, and Sunday School Superintendent - R.A. Spellman. The clerk was to search the title of Lisbon Church. This was done and the title was returned to the Bronson family heirs.

On June 6, 1926, a lot was purchased from Johnson Chapel Methodist Church (Parsonage lot). Members of the church were faithful to give of their time, talent and money to build the church. A building fund of $910 was collected. Part of the Lisbon Church building was used in constructing the Ingold Baptist Church. The members using horses and wagons hauled the lumber from the old church to the new church. The interior balcony railings and post were used and Mr. T.R. Burton and son Clarence handcrafted post to complete the balcony.

September 1, 1926, Ingold Baptist Church had the first worship service with Rev. T.H. King, from First Baptist Church, Clinton, preaching. He also led our church in a protracted meeting. In 1929 new windows and a brick veneer were added to the church building. Ingold Baptist Church was host to the Eastern Baptist Association in 1929.

The dedication of Ingold Baptist Church took place December 31, 1939, with pastor Dr. R.F. Marshburn, former pastors J. Herman Barnes and W.D. Morris, and the deacons taking part in the service. Pastors of Ingold Baptist Church were J. Herman Barnes - the first pastor called in 1926, W.D. Morris, R.F. Marshburn, T.L. Rich, M.M. Turner, B.L. Philbeck, Jr., J.B. Walsh, A.D. Brown, Ted M. Adkins, T.N. Cooper, Bobby T. McDaniel, Waldo Early (Interim), Wint Hales, Floyd Helms, Michael Lee, Robert Miller, Jake Carroll - ordained at Ingold Baptist Church, Lt. Commander James H. Pope (Interim) and our pastor, James Daniel Johnson, Jr.

Church growth has to recognize the men who have led as Sunday School Superintendents: R.A. Spellman, J.L. Cashwell, O.J. Humphrey, Alvah Tatum, J.O. Howard, E.C. Watson, Sr., and Gordan Cashwell who has served for 30 years. The ladies of the church have been faithful in the WMU that was established in 1926. For many years we had BYPU later called BTU, Sunbeams, GA, YWA, RA, and now we have a Brotherhood with Johnny Matthis as Director. We also have organized GA and Acteens with Mrs. Tena Johnson as Director. Vacation Bible School has also been a part of our church ministry.

In 1972 an education department was added to the church with four classrooms and a worship center for the children. The Allen organ and a piano have enhanced our worship service. Stained glass windows were given by the members in honor of their families. Gifts include: The church bell, used to call people to worship, given in honor of Mrs. Mollie Greene by L.H. Greene; Lights by Mrs. Doris Tatum Nelson; Baptistry by the J.L. Cashwell family; Mural in the baptistry by the Adrian Lamb family; Baptistry curtain and paintings by Mrs. P.R. Bradsher family; Chimes by O.L. Matthis, Sr. family; Piano by J.H. Pope family; Silver Communion Service and Pew Cushions by L.H. Lamb family; Silver Urns by L.M. Blackburn family; The Sound System by the David Staton family; and the Cornerstone of the church by the T.R. Burton family. The gifts of money have been used to make Ingold Baptist Church a better place to worship God.

The sign in front of the church was designed and made by Charles Matthis, Stanley Carter and Mrs. David Staton. Mrs. Staton has landscaped the church grounds.

Ingold Baptist Church continues in the faith of our fathers from Lisbon Church. We praise God for His love, mercy and His redeeming grace. Come through this door to rejoice with us in the house of the Lord.

History of Poplar Grove Baptist Church

Founded 1880

In August 1880, 28 members of Piney Grove Church were dismissed by letter for the purpose of organizing a church to be known as Poplar Grove.

On August 25, 1884, Miss Lizzie Hargrove granted a deed to Poplar Grove for one half acre. Then, on June 28, 1928, the Sampson County Board of Education granted a deed for another half acre which was formerly part of the Poplar Grove School lot.

Not much is recorded until 1952, when Rev. J.L. Powers was called as pastor. Under the leadership of this great man of God, great changes developed in this little church.

September 1953	The church replaced the old coal heater and installed new gas heaters.
Also in 1953	The church built its first three Sunday School rooms.
1954	Mr. B.F. Hargrove gave 24 chairs to the small Sunday School Class.
	The church floors were finished and carpet was purchased for the pulpit at a cost of $114.
	Mrs. Johnnie Bell purchased pulpit chairs from the Turkey Baptist Church for $18. These chairs were returned to Mrs. Bell when the church purchased new pulpit furniture.
1955	A new piano was purchased from the Kluttz Piano Company, Kannapolis, North Carolina, for $1,300.

After 40 years of serving God as a pastor, Rev. Powers retired in January of 1958.

In 1968, plans for an educational building were discussed and agreed upon. On April 18, 1969, the church made the final payment on the new educational building for a total cost of $16,012.70.

On April 2, 1972, Dennis Guy was licensed by Poplar Grove Church. On July 22, 1975, he was ordained by Robert A. Phipps, Eddie Wetherington, W.B. Shipp and J. Henry Simpson. Dennis was the first member to be ordained.

On March 28, 1984, within moments after Prayer Meeting and choir practice were adjourned, this country's worst tornado in 100 years passed through our community. It ripped through man-made buildings and mammoth oak trees, making kindling of almost everything in its path. Only piles of debris marked where many had lived, and in some cases, not even that much was left. With the loss of electrical power, which took several days to restore, and with the darkness and destruction, our community was in chaos. The spirit of love and compassion prevailed, however, and within the first hour those who were not critically affected were helping those who were.

When morning came, the visiable aftermath of the dark terror became even more awesome. People walked in shock and disbelief where their homes had been. Parts of homes and belongings were found miles away - much has never been found. A quarter-mile swath had been cut through the heart of the community and through the hearts of the people.

The Church top was gone and the walls were buckled so severely that there was nothing to do but clear away the whole sanctuary and start over from the ground up. The educational wing was damaged extensively, but was repairable. Our greatest loss, however, was Miss Nida Miller. That morning, she died from severe injuries suffered in the storm. Some others were hospitalized, and many will have emotional scars from the night for as long as they live.

Poplar Grove Baptist Church met the following Sunday in the local Community Building, with a full house attending. At the close of the Worship service all present joined hands in prayer as we asked the Lord to lead us in the days ahead. The decision was immediately made to rebuild the Church.

After meeting that first Sunday in the Community Building, we held Sunday School, Worship services, and Prayer Meeting in a metal store building, owned by Norwood King, located at the Giddensville crossroads. We praised the Lord for Norwood's generosity in making this building available to us.

After ten months of much prayer, many building committee meetings, member workdays, and many contributions from people all over the country, we moved into our new sanctuary. Our people joined together to lift each other up and to overcome this time of hardship. One of the greatest blessings came from the compassion and contributions from others. People from next door and as far away as Ypsilanti, Michigan, responded with their prayers and concern, and made financial contributions of over $15,000 to help meet our needs to rebuild.

The Spirit of the Lord has prevailed.

Senior Adult Ministries Committee Report

The Senior Adult Ministries Committee of EBA met several times during the year with Cathy Hopkins, for the purpose of planning and promoting their work.

The annual picnic held in Royal Lane Park, Clinton, on September 29 was again a success with over 200 attending and enjoying the day together.

During the Annual Associational Meeting of October 24, 1988, at Rose Hill Baptist Church, the Senior Adult Ministry had a part on the evening program.

There were 22 persons who traveled together to Caraway Baptist Retreat on October 16-18, 1988, for a time of spiritual fellowship and enrichment.

The Senior Adults sponsored a booth at the "Mission Fair" held March 2, 1989, Rowan Baptist Church, Clinton. Much interest was shown in the event.

The March 16, 1989, Rally was hosted by Poston Baptist Church, Wallace, with approximately 275 senior adults enjoying the festival of fellowship, inspiration and food. There were contributions of concern given in money and canned goods to the Christian Caring Center and to Home Missions.

We have seen evidence of new interest and greater outreach during the past year. There were more churches participating and higher attendance for the fellowship. Our programs have presented special people with great talent and heartwarming participation.

We look forward to continued growth in this ministry of love, and appreciate all who have had a part in this endeavor.

Deaf Ministries Committee Report

Eastern Baptist Association has deaf work in one church in the association, Poston Baptist Church in Wallace.

The association hosted a weekend Spiritual Retreat and cookout at Poston, June 10 and 11, 1989, with Jerry Spinks from Statesville assisting the pastor to the hearing-impaired, Rev. Billy Blakley. All hearing-impaired in the area were invited and 36 people attended the two day event.

We invite all churches to help us with a hearing-impaired-find. Please give us names of hearing-impaired in your area and if you desire to begin a ministry in your church we will help in any way possible.

Hearing-Impaired Mission - Poston Church

ANOTHER YEAR OF MIRACLES! We were without a pastor for approximately six months. Rev. Donald Coley led the worship service at 9:45 a.m. and Ben Hilliard interpreted. Sunday School was taught following the service.

In February Rev. Billy Blakley came to us as minister, along with his wife Pat and their two sons. Billy is a student at Southeastern Seminary preparing for a ministry to the hearing-impaired. He has endeared himself to the hearing-imparied. Pat teaches Sunday School. He leads the worship service and has had a number of fellowship activities: March 18, 1989, St. Patrick's Day Bible Study and fellowship with 20 in attendance; on May 13, 1989, Surprise birthday party for Pat, 15 attended; on July 8, 1989, Retreat and fellowship at Fort Fisher, 12 attended; on August 20, 1989, observed Language Missions Day with joint service in church, 14 attended. On Language Missions Day the church surprised Ben Hilliard with a "talking hands" interpreter's pin. The hearing-impaired brought special music led by Alma Stoddart, testimonies by Steve Rivenbark, Billy Blakley and an appreciation and challenge by the Associational Mission Ministries Director, Cathy Hopkins. The Poston Church Pastor, Rev. Don Coley, concluded the service with a mini message from Acts 2.

In June 1989 Alma Stoddart united with the church. Alma is a dedicated Christian, knows sign language and loves hearing-impaired people. We are especially blessed now that we have four people who are proficient in sign language and are looking forward to another year of miracles.

Literacy Ministries Committee Report

This year a 16 hour Laubach Literacy Workshop of basic reading to train tutors was held in the EBA Conference Center in February and in the Warsaw Baptist Church in March. The workshop was taught by Mrs. Mary Allred, tutor trainer from Wilmington. Several tutors from that workshop are teaching students: Madeline Cook of FBC, Mount Olive, Betty Butts of Corinth and Peggy Grice of Warsaw. Tyanna Day, Calypso, Florence Hoover, Wells Chapel, Lina Howard, FBC, Clinton and Miriam Lamb, Warsaw also tutored students this year.

The committee attended regional literacy meetings in Jacksonville and Greenville to keep up with literacy issues across the state and to hear what other councils do in their area.

The committee hopes to continue to expand its ministry this upcoming year coordinating students, tutors, time, and a place for teaching.

Pray that this ministry will help those being taught to learn to read and to read the Bible, God's Word.

Florence Hoover

Volunteer Chaplain Ministries Committee Report

During 1989 two more facilities were added to the list of those being served by volunteer chaplains from within the Eastern Association. Wayne Correctional Center is being served by Rev. Gerald Garris of Poplar Grove, and the Duplin Sheriff's Department is being served by Rev. David Willingham, pastor of Grove Presbyterian Church in Kenansville.

In addition to these two, we still have chaplains at Guardian Care Nursing Home, Meadowbrook Manor, Wallace Care Center, Whaley Rest Home, and at the Duplin Correctional Unit. Numerous memorial services have been conducted at some of our nursing homes along with many visits. Plus, many hours of counseling and spiritual support have been extended to those in the correctional systems served.

During the month of May an appreciation dinner was held at the Rose Hill Restaurant to honor the volunteer chaplains for the work they have done. We praise God for those who have dedicated so much of their time to meeting the needs of others in the ministry. However, we still need volunteer chaplains for many facilities in Sampson and Duplin counties.

Our goal for the coming year is for a committee member, or one of the volunteer chaplains, to visit in the churches to share their experiences in this ministry, and challenge everyone who will to consider allowing God to lead them in this rewarding service.

Gerald Garris, Chairman

Seasonal Farmworkers Ministries Committee Report

At the 1988 EBA Annual Meeting, a constitutional change was introduced and accepted to change the term "migrant ministries" to "seasonal farmworkers ministries," thus we have adhered to this in promotional materials, mailouts, etc. Year-round meetings of the committee aim toward the impact of the summer ministry. Thirty-eight people made professions of faith and nine rededicated their lives to Christ in the summer of 1989.

Five summer missionaries, Lisa Wheeler of Tegucigalpa, Honduras and a Hardin-Simmons University student in Abilene, Texas; Pam Craig, an Appalachian State student from Raleigh; Gary Enge, a Grand Canyon University, Phoenix, Arizona student from El Paso, Texas; Mave Martin, a UNC-W student from Hickory; and Melainie Jones, a Mars Hill College student from Unaka, served for 10 weeks as summer missionaries along with short-term youth and adult mission groups from outside EBA; Long Branch Baptist Church of Lumberton, Acteen Activators of SC, Antioch Baptist Church of Chapel Hill and Christian Service Corps volunteers: Mary Porter of Rocky Mount, Bernice Smith of Jackson, Elwin Goodfellow and Rachel Holt of Roanoke Rapids, Linda Womack of Snow Hill and Maria Smith of Dublin, North Carolina and adult groups from within EBA from FBC, Mount Olive, Sharon, Garland, Mount Vernon, New Hope and Rose Hill Churches served in ministries such as Backyard Bible Clubs. Thirteen Backyard Bible Clubs enrolled 286 children and one BBC held at North Duplin Elementary Summer Migrant School by FBC, Mount Olive reached over 125 children.

Eighteen churches were directly involved in "hands-on" ministry with seasonal farmworkers and 21 churches were indirectly involved as in giving health kits, Bibles, clothes, refreshments, etc.

Five hundred seventy health kits, 111 Bibles and over 300 clothing orders were distributed to hundreds of people throughout the 41 camps and housing areas visited on a regular basis in the three-county area.

The Annual Seasonal Farmworkers Appreciation Pig Pickin' was held August 10 with about 75-100 present to celebrate the fruits of the summer ministry.

We appreciate the support of EBA, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the many individuals who have given their time and energy to help in reaching the lost and lifting up the downtrodden with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Hispanic Mission Report - First Baptist Church, Clinton

The Hispanic Mission has experienced another year of numerical growth and growing stability as it enters its fifth year. The average attendance this summer was 68, and even after the summer the attendance has been good. In stability, families are being located who remain in the area year round and stability is evident in faithfulness and excitement. Now we have 45 members. This year we baptized nine people, and others attending are considering making this decision.

Like last year, this year our radio program has been a great blessing for the Hispanic community. Also, we have continued using the building of Calvary Baptist Church for our Bible study on Thursday nights.

In this year we have started a new mission-point at the Carolina Turkey Trailer Park with Bible study on Saturday nights. Many people from there have come to know Jesus as their personal Savior.

Thanks to the First Baptist Church, Clinton and especially to Dr. Alfred Miller who has given me a great support in what I am doing and the Mission is doing for the Hispanics. GOD BLESS YOU!

William Ortega, Pastor

The Eastern Association Christian Education Center represents a cooperative effort between Eastern Baptist Association and the six Southern Baptist seminaries to provide ministry training in this area. More than 7,000 students nationwide took one or more Seminary Extension courses.

More than 75 courses are now available from the Seminary Extension Department. Individuals concerned with strengthening their ministries can take these courses either in our extension center or by correspondence study.

In addition to Randy Outland, members of the Seminary Extension committee this year were Danny Johnson, Ed Johnson, Gene Lakey, Paula Matthis, and Mary Evelyn Wells.

Church Music Report

Special music and music leadership were provided during the 1988 annual meeting. A fifth Sunday afternoon sing was held on January at Clinton, First for which church choirs were encouraged to share two anthems of praise. Seven churches were represented, and four participated. During the Key Leadership Conference in August, choir directors shared problems and victories. The highlight of the year was when adult choir members from 25 churches joined their voices in a mass choir for the Evangelism Rally. May we continue to exalt our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, through music.

Cooperative Program Report
The Same Team
The Cooperative Program and the Association Budget

Since 1925 the Cooperative Program has been the primary channel through which Southern Baptist churches have financed their mission programs. Tithes and offerings of church members have been disbursed to finance foreign, home, state, association, and even local church missions. It has been a beautiful and satisfying spiritual experience for churches who have really put their hearts into it.

What it is, is the team approach. Churches are working as a team through all their organized units of mission outreach.

Associations are channels through which many Baptist churches do a part of their mission work. Many of these ministries receive financial support through the Cooperative Program. The church sends Cooperative Program gifts to the state convention, and a part of this is used in the state mission office to support associational ministries. Vigorous Christian witness and ministry are carried out because of this cooperative effort.

Most churches feel that in addition to Cooperative Program support through their state, they need to share directly in the financial support of the association of which they are a part. Again - teamwork! Churches "teamed" together for associational mission ministries.

Just as churches participate in world missions by giving a percent of their budget income through the Cooperative Program, most churches also feel the need to share a percent through the association mission budget. This is not that missions should begin at home - but rather that missions may not end at home. Strong associational missions programs are essential to ensure continued strong state, foreign, and home missions programs for the churches.

If the churches accomplish their purpose in the area of world missions support, they will do so by using their tithes and offerings through the associational mission budget and the Cooperative Program. They are a team. The same team!

1990 Simultaneous Revival Steering Committee Report

EBA SIMULTANEOUS REVIVALS - MARCH 18-25, 1990
HERE'S HOPE: JESUS CARES FOR YOU

The time is drawing near for all of us to begin to plan for our Simultaneous Revivals. The Committee has been working and planning for the past year to make these Revivals as successful as possible. The Committee has planned a prayer retreat in December for our first activity to begin pointing us to the Revivals. Other activities are planned and we hope that all the Churches in the Association will join in our efforts to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the lost.

Please mark these very important dates for our Revivals on your Church's calendars for 1990.

Respectfully submitted,
John Maisenhelder, Chairman

Evangelism Committee Report

The Evangelism Committee sponsored two major training activities this year in preparation for our upcoming Simultaneous Revivals. The first was in conjunction with the Church Training Department, and was intended to prepare Pastors for counseling those who respond to the invitation. Our other training period offered classes to the youth, and your own personal testimony. Both of these Clinics were highly successful.

As we point to the Revival efforts in 1990, let us keep the Mission Christ intrusted to us foremost in our mind, that it will bring lost souls to him.

Sunday School Report

This is the final year of "Challenge 10/90," the challenge for Southern Baptist to reach 10 million new persons enrolled in Bible Study by September 30, 1990. While the task appears to be an almost impossible task, it can be done.

This goal is possible but will require a revitalized Sunday School leadership who see people with eyes of love. We have the message of hope for the saved and unsaved.

The Association Sunday School Improvement Support Team of Eastern Baptist Association challenges each church to model the Great Commission given by our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Associational Leadership Conference For Sunday School Workers held at Turkey Baptist Church was an excellent opportunity to receive training and sharpen teaching skills for every Sunday School Leader. This conference took place Monday Night, September 18, 1989, with a separate conference for almost every age division.

However, much still can be done. We challenge each Sunday School Worker to devote themselves to bring hope to a hurting world. This is done through caring, sharing, and teaching the truths of God's amazing love.

Mack Musselwhite

Church Training Report

The task of maturing spiritually never ends, and the whole body of the church is responsible for helping all believers to develop into spiritual maturity. The Church Training program has the major responsibility within the church organization for reaching and equipping persons for discipleship and personal ministry.

In order to train disciples, the Church Training Program seeks to carry out six tasks:

1. Reach Persons For Discipleship Training.
2. Orient New Church Members For Responsible Church Membership.
3. Equip Church Members For Discipleship and Personal Ministry.
4. Teach Christian Theology, Baptist Doctrine, Christian Ethics, Christian History, and Church Polity and Organization.
5. Train Church Leaders for Ministry.
6. Interpret and Undergird the Work of the Church and Denomination.

During the 1988-89 year, the Church Training Program of Eastern Association endeavored to assist churches and pastors in accomplishing their Church Training tasks by:

1. Sponsoring M Night, November 28, 1988, at Immanuel Baptist Church. Theme: "A Call to Baptist Basics." Featured speaker was Bruce Anthony, Southeast Baptist Church, Greensboro.
2. Providing a Bible Skills Seminar/Lasagna Dinner preceding M Night, featuring Children's Bible Drill Training.
3. Leading a program promoting the annual "Baptist Doctrine Study" for Eastern Association Ministers Conference, March 20, 1989.
4. Sponsoring an Associational Youth Rally at Calvary Baptist Church, April 1, 1989.
5. Sending team members to the Enabler's Conference at Caraway Baptist Conference Center, November 18-19, 1988.

6. Holding the Associational Children and Youth Bible Drill and Youth Speakers' Tournament, Sunday, April 23, at Kenansville Baptist. Seven children and two youth went on to State Drills. Michael Briggs represented our association in the Speakers' Tournament.
7. Providing training for Church Training Directors in New Record System, Life Guide and New Member Training at Key Leadership Conference, August 31, 1989.
8. Purchasing additional Equipping Center Modules for Association's Lending Library.
9. Providing one-to-one consultations on beginning new work with five pastors in the Association. State New Work Consultant, Suthel Walker, and Eastern Association's New Work Consultant led these consultations.
10. Sending two team members to the National Doctrine Conference, Charlotte, North Carolina in February 1989.
11. Co-sponsoring the Life course, DecisionTime, led by Randall Outland, Adult Consultant, in Spring 1989. Eight pastors/staff completed the course. Co-sponsor: Evangelism Committee.
12. Providing the Life course, WiseCounsel, Fall 1989 led by Randy Outland for pastors and staff.

These goals were adopted by the Church Training team for 1989-1990:

1. Establish and expand the Church Training programs in Eastern Association churches with 75 percent of the churches reporting Church Training.
2. Increase awareness of key Church Training programs and the variety of curriculum materials and approaches in Eastern Association churches.
3. Interpret and encourage the use of the new record-keeping system for Church Training in churches.
4. Increase the percentage of churches in Eastern Association who offer the annual Doctrinal Study to 75 percent.
5. Continue to promote Church Training through annual events such as M Night, Youth Rally, Children and Youth Bible Drills and Speakers' Tournament.

To strengthen the Church Training program of our association and to begin new programs and groups, we have an excellent Church Training Council. They are available to serve the churches of Eastern Association. Please let us help you by informing us of the particular training needs of your church.

World Missions Conference Committee

Eastern Baptist Association will be participating in a World Missions Conference in our churches April 7-14, 1991. We are making preparations to host five foreign missionaries, five home missionaries, and three state missionaries in the churches of the association.

As of this date we have 23 churches to express their committment to take part by hosting a missionary and sponsoring World Missions Conferences in their churches. These churches are: Albertson, Beulah, Brown Concord, Corinth, Dobson Chapel, Evergreen, Grove Park, Hickory Grove, Immanuel, Johnson, Kennansville, FBC Mount Olive, Mount Vernon, Piney Grove, Poston, Rose Hill, Rowan, Sharon, Siloam, Teachey, Wells Chapel, and Mount Gilead.

The cost for our World Missions Conference is a lot less than one might suppose, because each participating church will contribute toward the expenses of the conference. Each church will send $150.00 to the association in the spring of 1990 for transportation expenses. In addition, each church will host one missionary by providing food, lodging, and local transportation for five days. Each church will receive a love offering to be shared by all the missionaries.

The Eastern Baptist Association World Missions Conference coordinating committee will organize the World Missions Conference on the associational level and will teach the church World Missions Conference committees how to organize and prepare for the World Missions Conference in each church. The training meeting will be November 5, 1990. The Eastern Baptist Association World Missions Conference Committee will keep you informed between now and the time of the World Missions Conference. The members of the Eastern Baptist Association coordinating committee are available to answer your questions, please call on us.

Respectfully submitted,
Stephen Moore, Chairman

Some see Jesus as a rich uncle or an errand boy. We come to Jesus with certain expectations. The rich young ruler turned away upon learning the cost of Discipleship. What is more important than carrying out Christ's instructions! Disciples are required to be fully committed. A true disciple is one who takes a stand and bets it all, publically for Christ.

How can we rectify the problem in our lives?

1. We can return to the plow and accept the assignment of Christ for our lives.
2. We can produce - minister to the lost, hurting and others in our areas.
3. We can be like Christ - look at others and feel love for them.

There are people on the rubbish heap of life, waiting for people to see the potential, love, and vision for the individual.

Will churches continue to look inward?

There are about 120 countries in which Southern Baptists have work. Former Communist Country leaders are asking the Foreign Mission Board for missionaries.

We need a mind set on missions. A missionary is one who is listening to the heartbeat of God and to the heartbeat of those around him.

If we seek to be mission-minded, we must have a heart that goes beyond our own need. The church must help its members to know how to walk as a Christian. To stand before people and proclaim Christ, one must be Christlike in his actions.

Priorities must be God-centered and other than self-centered.

God made Jesus Lord and Christ. The followers were servants. The early Christians saw themselves as slaves to Jesus Christ - their concept of the Lordship of Christ.

We need to understand that we have been bought with a price. We are the slaves of Christ. Jesus founded His church. Jesus stands at the door of His church, knocking, asking for His church back. He is the Head of His church.

Lordship means servanthood. Early disciples saw themselves as servants to each other.

Lordship was seen as self-denial and crucifixion. To take up the cross means death. Paul considered he had died on the cross with Christ.

When the world squeezes us real tight, what comes out — that which is on the inside. The early Christians saw people for whom Christ died as they saw people in their lives.

Seminary Extension Report

Seminary Extension is provided through Eastern Baptist Association in conjunction with our six Southern Baptist Seminaries. It is a great opportunity for the minister who would like to further his education as well as the lay teacher/leader who would like to broaden their biblical knowledge and enhance their personal ministries.

Ministers or laity who would like to sharpen their ministry skills may do so by taking courses through the Eastern Association Christian Education Center or by correspondence study.

Brotherhood Report

The Eastern Baptist Association's Brotherhood had another great year in the Lord's work for 1989-90. We had men and boys' groups involved in many areas of mission work. Some of the high moments were:

(1) The Baptist Men's Rally at Piney Grove with Rev. George Shore of the N.C. Baptist State Convention as our speaker. We had over 225 in attendance for a delicious meal and an encouraging spiritual program. Rev. Bob Ferguson and the Men's Choir from Mt. Olive provided our music.

(2) Approximately three-fourths of our churches responded to the Hugo relief with many man hours and dollars donated.

(3) Many also participated in the Seasonal Farmworkers Ministry of the EBA.

(4) Baptist Men's Day was observed by nearly all of our churches on January 28, 1990, with the theme, "Missions is Masculine."

(5) At least 10 of our churches through their men and boys responded with over $2,000.00 to the Russian Bible Project.

(6) Men from Piney Grove, Kenansville, Shiloh, Immanuel and Albertson contributed many long hard hours of free labor on the Albertson Fellowship Hall during October and November.

(7) The Disaster Relief Van was on display at Kenansville in September and the Medical/Dental Bus at Mt. Gilead in July.

(8) We had good attendance at Key Leadership in August. We decided to support the Medical/Dental Bus as an associational project for next year (1990-91).

(9) We had a 20 percent increase in men and boy organizations reported in the EBA in 1989-90.

As we continue to serve our Lord through our own Market Place Ministry may we all give Him THANKS and PRAISE! As EBA Brotherhood Director I appreciate each male who has had any part in making our year successful and THANK YOU for your support.

I would like to quote our N.C. Baptist Men's Director, David Langford, from the Summer 1990 issue of Men in Missions: "My prayer is that we will continue to focus our eyes on Christ who compels us and calls us to be on mission in this world with Him! N.C. Baptist Men have become known for those who "do" missions and "pray" for missions and "give" to missions. I wish to encourage you to continue to do so. We must continue to be part of reconciling the world to God through Christ! There is nothing that will or can take the place of this in our lives."

Respectfully submitted,
Jimmy Johnson

History of Brown Baptist Church

Clinton, North Carolina

In 1749, a preacher by the name of Elder Edward Brown came to that portion of Duplin County which later became Sampson County in 1784 and settled on Great Coharie Swamp. He founded Great Coharie Church, now known as Rowan Baptist Church. He served as pastor of this church until his death in 1783.

Elder Brown purchased part of his 900 acre plantation from Col. John Sampson. Early in 1778 Brown Baptist Church was organized. On October 20, 1778, Edward Brown made a deed for three acres of land to Brown Church. It was known as Brown's Meeting House until the church was organized. He became pastor of the church and remained as pastor until his death in 1783.

It appears that Brown Church became inactive for some years after Elder Brown's death, but we may well believe that the Rev. Fleet Cooper, and his brother, the Rev. William Cooper, occasionally preached here.

The Kehukee Association was organized in 1769, and since the records of this Association are not complete, we believe but do not have proof, that Brown Church was a member of this Association. The records do show that in 1789, the Baptist Churches in Sampson County were under the watchcare of the Rev. Fleet Cooper. In 1790 the records of the Goshen Association show that Joshua Sikes had already been ordained as an Elder and was a member of Brown Church. Records show he was pastor of the church for a time. The records of Rowan Church state that in 1808 a constitution was to take place at Brown Church. Records show that Brown Baptist Church was reorganized again in 1816. The records of Goshen Association show that in 1828 John Stevens was delegate to the Associational Meeting and Brown Church had a membership of 41 members. In 1832, October 7th, 8th, and 9th, the Association met at Brown Church. The membership then was 33. In 1838 the Association met at Rowan and the delegates from Brown Church were: Y.R. Royal, N. Lewis, and Stephen Stanley. Brown Church reported 50 members. Records of the church from 1778 to 1871 have been lost.

In the early years of the church the men sat on one side and the women on the other side in the services. Slave members sat in a balcony or at the rear of the building. The business of the church was carried on by the men. Slave members had no voice in church affairs. In 1867 the church granted Letters of Dismission for the black members to organize Brown's Chapel Church for their own race. At that time Brown Church had 29 white members and 45 black members.

At the present time Brown is served by a full-time pastor, Rev. Frank Turner, with regular services each Sunday morning and Wednesday evening. They also have Sunday School, W.M.U., Brotherhood, choir, Vacation Bible School, and some Youth ministry. We now have 158 total membership; 132 of which are resident members. In over 200 years over 45 men have served Brown as pastor.

A History of
Dobson Chapel Baptist Church 1864-1990

One hundred twenty-five years ago a small group of Baptists from the area of the Dobson School community gathered in a brush-arbor shelter on property which is on the southeast side and adjacent to the present church property. They were a small band of Believers who felt the need to form a fellowship for the purpose of corporate worship, mutual support, and the propagation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Together they sought God's guidance for their small gathering and, after three years of meeting once a month they formulated plans to constitute into a church.

In 1867, they met at Dobson's school house where they unanimously adopted their name and their covenant.

The church grew slowly in number, and church records show that there was a total of 45 at this point in time including one colored member. In 1868 the church adopted a plan for each member to make a monthly donation for the support of the pastor.

Beaver Dam, Kenansville, Hallsville, and Island Creek were Sister churches. Delegates represented each of these churches at their respective business meetings.

In 1877, realizing that the small donation hertofore adopted for support of the pastor was inadequate, the church adopted a resolution to pay one dollar per member per year to the support of the pastor.

In 1884 the first Sunday School was organized, and the first Sunday School Superintendent was H.C. Springfield. In 1891 the church voted to save their eggs which were laid on Sunday and give the proceeds from the sale of those eggs to Missions.

Dobson Chapel hosted the Association for the first time in 1891, and in preparation for that historic meeting, a hospitality committee was formed to which W.P. Dobson, W.H. Murray, C.D. Bostic, and Jesse Bradshaw were appointed.

In February 1892 an ordinance was passed that the members of this church shall not frequent Bar-rooms on unnecessary Business. In May of that year they voted to pay the Pastor $100.00 per year.

In 1924 the Association Annual Session was held at Dobson Chapel for the second time. In addition, B.Y.P.U. (Baptist Young People's Union) was organized by C.C. Brown with 31 members.

In August of 1927, under the leadership of Rev. J.H. Booth, the church adopted its first budget system. One-fourth of the receipts were to go to missions and three-fourths to the Pastor's salary.

By 1948 very few changes had taken place in the structure of the church buildings. As evidence of the hard times, the church had converted the Old Dobson School house into its sanctuary which had no individual classrooms. Plans were made to add classroom space to the rear of the church.

In 1949 the church burned to the ground. After the tragedy, there were some who felt the church should disband. However, under the able leadership of Rev. N.E. Gresham, who would hear nothing of the idea of disbanding, the church pulled itself together and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and Rev. Gresham, built a brick structure consisting of a sanctuary and six Sunday School classrooms which were completed three years later in October 1952 in time for the third Annual Session of the Association.

For most of its existence the church had been in a multiple church circuit consisting at various times of Beaver Dam, Hallsville, Sharon, Shiloh, Island Creek, and Kenansville. Not all at the same time, but most of the time there was a consortium of four churches served by a single pastor. In 1953 and the years just prior to that, the church was in a field of four churches which consisted of Sharon, Shiloh, Island Creek, and Dobson Chapel. Island Creek and Shiloh pulled out and called their own pastor and Dobson Chapel and Sharon banned together to form a two church field under the pastorate of Rev. M. Vann Murrell with church services to be held on the second, fourth, and fifth Sunday mornings and first and third Sunday nights.

The church soon found itself short on Sunday School space and voted in October 1954 to pledge funds for additional Sunday School classrooms.

Significant events for 1955 included the resignation of Pastor Vann Murrell so that he could further his studies at the University of Edinburgh in Edinburgh, Scotland and the calling of Pastor John I. Durham who was affectionately known as Johnny. Under their leadership the church grew rapidly and many of the young people came to know the Lord. Just as Pastor Murrell had gone on to Scotland, Pastor Durham felt God's call to continue his studies at the University of Oxford, Oxford, England and he resigned in August of 1961.

Four years after voting to pledge the funds for a new educational wing the church voted to accept the plans for the new wing and began construction in the fall of 1959. Though the men worked hard to get the job done, funds were low and caused delays in the construction because of the lack of materials. As a result, the church voted to borrow the money to at least complete the outside in order to protect what had been accomplished. It was during the period of 1955-1961 that the church saw its greatest growth.

Though growth was not as rapid in later years as it was during earlier periods, the church still grew and in 1962 took a landmark step in the decision to go full time after Sharon church had voted to go full time, thus leaving Dobson Chapel with the choice of having a part-time pastor or going full time. With the calling of its first full-time pastor in 98 years, the church began making preparations for its one hundredth year of existence. The church called Rev. James L. Morris as their first full-time pastor. In doing so, the church made plans to build a parsonage and again the members poured out their hearts, sweat, and money to make it come true. Carl Kilpatrick gave the land and Mr. Jesse Brock provided the bulldozer to help clear and level the site and Mr. Edwin Register drilled the well for the water.

Pastor Morris led the church in its preparation for its Centennial Celebration, but it was Pastor E. Lamar Eiland who would celebrate it with them and the first to occupy the new parsonage. Many former pastors and friends were in attendance including now Dr. Vann Murrell, Dr. John I. Durham, Rev. James Morris, and Rev. Cliff Collins, a former interim pastor.

Dobson Chapel began its second century with the calling of the Rev. Millard Bounds as its pastor, who served for approximately five years before being called by a church in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. During the period of Rev. Bound's ministry the church ordained a native son, the Rev. Roy Parker, and licensed the Rev. Roy Lee Vestal into the Gospel Ministry.

Rev. Bounds was followed by the Rev. Jimmy Johnson as interim pastor which extended over a period of four years from 1971 until 1975 when the church called the Rev. David Gordon as its pastor. During the period of Rev. Jimmy Johnson's pastorate the church renovated its sanctuary which was dedicated on June 11, 1972. A new electric organ was presented to the church at that time also by Mrs. Naomi Brock and family. In 1974 the church completed the lower floors of the educational building. The upper floors still were not completed until later in 1985.

In 1975 the church called seminarian, the Rev. David Gordon. He was a great hit with the young people and many came to know Christ under his leadership. During his pastorate the Sunday School grew to its largest since the days of the Rev. John (John) I. Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Sanderson, Sr. purchased a steeple and had it installed in the fall of 1975. In 1976 the church began its first library. After Rev. Gordon the church hit a low and the Rev. Dr. J. Carrol Trotter, a native of Warsaw and Professor of Preaching at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest, served as interim.

The Rev. Randy Wellman, a student at Southeastern Seminary, served as pastor from 1981 until 1982. In February of 1983 the Rev. Jimmy Johnson was recalled as interim again and served until August of that year when the church called the Rev. Ernest (Ed) L. Johnson, Jr. who served until September 1990.

During the period of 1984 to the present, many wonderful things have happened. The church installed beautiful stained glass windows which were donated by the families of the church. Miss Lillie B. Teachey, a lifelong member and retired Duplin County school teacher, upon her death, bequeathed the funds to complete the upper floor classrooms which had been a longtime dream of hers and the church. Upon their completion in 1985, the upstairs educational wing was dedicated in a special service and named in her honor.

Ernest L. Johnson, III was licensed in the Gospel Ministry in 1985 at which time he enrolled in Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, North Carolina.

In 1988 the church was given a new studio piano in honor of Mrs. Janet Teachey Register, the church Music Director, by an anonymous donor for use in the sanctuary.

Most recently, a new air conditioner and heating system has been installed in the sanctuary and the parsonage. In addition, new fluorescent lights have been installed in all classrooms on the lower level and the kitchen has been rewired to accommodate electric appliances of all types without overloading the circuits. A wheelchair ramp was completed for the southeast entrance. Despite, the declining farm population where many of the children have grown up and moved away, the church has managed to hold its own and is a beacon of hope in the community where it serves.

Missions Development Council Report

The Missions Development Council met quarterly during the year. Component program and church-type mission reports were shared at each meeting. The following is a list of highlights of the year.

1. Interfaith Witness Ministries was introduced and accepted as a new component program at the 1989 Annual Meeting.
2. The year 1989-90 was utilized as a year of awareness for Church Extension Ministries which will be recommended as a new component program at the 1990 Annual Meeting.
3. Training was provided for one Missions Development leader at Key Leadership at Caswell and for six churches during the Associational Key Leadership Conference. Interest is growing among EBA Churches to begin Missions Development in their respective churches. Mount Vernon Church voted in September to begin a Missions Development Program. A slide presentation on Missions Development at FBC, Mount Olive, has been effective in helping churches visualize how they can begin Missions Development.
4. The MDC recommended to the EBA Executive Board "that a church-type mission be established in the Carolina Turkey Plant area of Northern Duplin County, sponsored by FBC, Mount Olive, with the assistance of EBA and the support of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina." This was approved on January 23, 1990.
5. The 1990-91 goals, calendar, and budget requests were developed by each component program.
6. The 1991 Cooperative Agreement requests were approved at the 1989 Annual Meeting.

We are pleased with the challenges and growth of the ministries of Missions Development. Your continued support is greatly needed and appreciated. The details of each component program and church-type mission follow this report.

Interfaith Witness Ministries Committee Report

The Interfaith Witness component of the Missions Development program officially began in October 1989. This first year of ministry has been a full and fruitful one. In November Randy Outland led an association-wide awareness conference on Mormonism and led the program of the Baptist Men's Prayer Breakfast at Siloam Baptist Church. In March the chairman of the component attended a conference on Satanism in Raleigh sponsored in part by the Raleigh Baptist Association. Also in March during the associational Youth Retreat at Campbell University, four conferences were held on Satanism/Occult. A Home Mission Board video on Satanism was shown.

At the Executive Board meeting in April, Randy Outland presented to Eastern Association a copy of his Doctor of Ministry Project-in-Ministry Report, entitled "Why Some Southern Baptists Become Mormons: A Project in Interfaith Understanding and Baptist Retention." The project report was placed in the associational Media Library for general circulation.

In May Gene Lakey led an association-wide awareness conference on Jehovah's Witnesses. Also in May the program at the Ministers' and Wives' Conference was sponsored by the Interfaith Witness component. The video "Coping with Cults" was shown and printed materials from the Home Mission Board were displayed.

In addition to the above events, Interfaith Witness Belief Bulletins were sent to pastors and churches upon request. Videos on Mormonism and cults were also loaned to churches and individuals.

Gene Lakey and Randy Outland are certified Interfaith Witness Associates with the Home Mission Board. Training is available for anyone interested in becoming certified in the New Age Movement or Satanism/Occult, among others including Mormonism and the Jehovah's Witnesses.

The Interfaith Witness component stands ready to help churches and individuals to better understand and witness to persons on cults and sects, world religions, and other religious groups.

Senior Adult Ministries Committee Report

How wonderful has been the fellowship among the "Golden Agers" during this past year!

Working with Cathy Hopkins, our EBA Mission Ministries Director, the committee members - Lois Colwell, Arlene Rhodes and Eunice Newkirk, have endeavored to continue to promote interest among the churches toward an organized ministry for Senior Adults in each. Many churches are participating and we look forward to each having this in their own, or sharing with another.

We have met quarterly for planning the work and special events.

The Annual Picnic at Royal Lane Park on September 25, 1989 was again successful with about 200 attending.

The program was presented by the Calvary Baptist Church choir of Wilmington.

First, Mount Olive Church was host to the Senior Adults for the Annual Rally held March 15, 1990, with 241 attending.

For the program hour we had the "J.J. Singers" of Raleigh and Evelyn Kepley from FBC, Lexington, North Carolina, who spoke of "Extra Years of Zest."

The Rally was videotaped for EBA by Rev. Ottis King.

Many senior adults brought canned food for the ACIA.

We also attended the Senior Adult Retreat at Caraway on October 16-18, 1989, and were blessed with the inspirational program and fellowship.

Appreciation is expressed to First Baptist Church, Clinton, for the use of their bus and also to Rev. Ed Johnson who drove for us. The trip was most memorable.

We have again worked toward plans for the Annual "Picnic in the Park," September 27, 1990, and are laying plans for the big Rally of March 14, 1991, with Grove Park Church, Clinton.

The many events shared together give something for each to look forward to with great anticipation.

Surely our lives are enriched.

We appreciate all who helped in every way and also those who shared.

Eunice Newkirk, Chairman

Poston Baptist Deaf Mission Report

The year 1989-1990 has been an exciting year for Poston Baptist Deaf Mission. The most obvious change made this year is in our name. The members decided to change the name of the mission from Poston Baptist Mission for the Hearing Impaired to Poston Baptist Deaf Mission. This new name better identified the members with other deaf missions within the state. Persons who grew up in the deaf culture associate with the new name more so than persons who have over the years gradually lost their hearing. A sense of pride was exhibited in changing the mission's name.

Attendance has remained good this year. The mission is averaging 15 to 16 in Worship Services each week. The mission has seen the addition of two new members in 1989-1990. One member joined by transferring his letter from another Baptist church. The other new member joined by profession of faith followed by baptism. Another of our deaf church prospects has made a profession of faith but has not yet joined the mission.

Music has become an important part of the Worship Service at Poston Baptist Deaf Mission. Mrs. Alma Stoddart is coordinating the music for the mission. Each week one of the members perform a solo for the group. Occasionally, the whole choir will perform during the Worship Service. Everyone in the mission is excited about their opportunity to assist in worship by singing a song.

In addition to her assistance, Mrs. Stoddart is available to interpret all services at Poston Baptist Church on Sunday evenings and Wednesday evenings. The deaf members of the mission are now able to attend any and all of the opportunities for worship interpreted in sign language.

There have been six socials during the year for the mission. Besides signing for the annual Associational meeting in Faison, the mission hosted the Thanksgiving Banquet for the deaf of the area. Approximately 65 persons attended the banquet. Last May, eight from the mission attended TIC at the Caraway Center in Asheboro, North Carolina. Eastern Association and Poston Baptist Church sponsored the group's trip to the conference at Caraway. The mission completed its summer activities by attending the outdoor drama, "Worthy Is The Lamb," at Swansboro.

Poston Baptist Deaf Mission is indeed experiencing exciting times. Even as they finish this church year, plans are in the process for the mission to elect its own deacons. Many things that other churches take for granted, such as having its own deacons, move slower and more carefully for a language mission composed of new Christians. Our "senior saints" are four and five year old Christians. Much has to be learned about discipleship, but Poston Baptist Deaf Mission is doing its best to become the best language mission in the state. Thank you all for your prayers and your financial support.

Billy Blakley, Pastor

Volunteer Chaplain Ministries Committee Report

During the past year our volunteer chaplains have continued to provide much needed services to nursing homes, retirement homes, jails and prisons in the Eastern Association. While worship and Bible study is the regular emphasis, there has been an increase in memorial services and spiritual counseling in all facilities.

Bryan Retirement Home has been added to our list of facilities being served. However, there is a need for someone to fill the needs at Guardian Care of Kenansville, as Rev. Ed Johnson has accepted a call to a church in another association.

We still need volunteer chaplains for many facilities in Sampson and Duplin counties. The only qualification is the willingness to spend some time serving others.

Respectfully submitted,
Gerald Garris, Chairman

Literacy Ministries Committee Report

The Literacy Committee has met regularly, and is active in teaching reading.

Plans were made for a Laubach Basic Reading and Writing Workshop which was held on August 2, 3, 4 at the Warsaw Baptist Church and was taught by Ruth Whitley of Whiteville. Ten new tutors were trained at this time and several other tutors refreshed themselves. The new tutors were given students at the end of the workshop.

The other trained tutors who have students, Peggy Grice, Betty Butts, Florence Hoover, Tyanna Day and Madeline Cook continue to work with their students weekly, teaching them reading and giving encouragement, self-esteem, counseling and being a friend. We are proud of these tutors who give of their time and energy to meet these needs.

A former literacy student, Natalia Reyes, was one of the Seasonal Farmworkers Summer Missionaries for the 1990 summer; she received her first literacy training at Faison Baptist Church through EBA tutors.

Continue to pray for this ministry, the tutors and students. Teach someone to read.

Florence Hoover, Chairman

Seasonal Farmworkers Ministries Committee Report

Thank you for another great year in ministry to Seasonal Farmworkers across EBA! Eighty-seven Professions of Faith were recorded in the summer ministry.

Four Summer Missionaries, Frank Ontiveros of El Paso, Texas and the University of Texas at El Paso; Natalia Reyes of Warsaw and the Hispanic Baptist Theological Seminary in San Antonio, Texas; Patti Welch of Greensboro and North Carolina State University, and Orpha Ortega of Clinton served for 10 weeks, along with short-term youth and adult mission groups from outside EBA: Jersey Baptist Church, Lexington, North Carolina; Southside Baptist Church of Dothan, Alabama and a mother-daughter group from Kentucky; and Christian Service Corps Volunteers: Bernice Smith of Jackson and Elwin Goodfellow of Roanoke Rapids. FBC, Mount Olive continued their ministry at North Duplin Elementary Summer Migrant School with over 125 enrolled in their Backyard Bible Club. Thirteen other Backyard Bible Clubs enrolled 235 children while two VBS's enrolled 36 children. EBA Churches involved in BYBC or VBS were Mount Vernon, FBC, Clinton, Faison, New Hope and Warsaw. Many thanks to William Ortega for his continued assistance in the ministry.

Many Bibles, Health and Infant Kits and food and clothing requests were filled. Thanks for your donations of money and items to be shared in this ministry.

The Annual Seasonal Farmworkers Appreciation Pig Pickin' was held August 9 with 125 in attendance.

The support of EBA, the BSC of NC and the many individuals who have given their time and energy in reaching the lost is essential. You are helping to teach many people, young and old, about the love of Jesus Christ and of His plan for their lives.

Hispanic Mission Report

CLINTON FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The year 1990 has been one of great development and growth for our Hispanic Mission. The hand of God has moved mightily to change the lives of the hispanic community and making the gospel heard by many.

The average attendance has been between 70 and 90 persons each Sunday. We now have 53 members and 15 have been baptized, while others are considering making this decision.

We also have started various "preaching points" in Carolina Turkey, Rose Hill and Jacksonville where members of our mission are in charge. The first results of this ministry is the establishment of a permanent mission in Carolina Turkey and the surrounding area. This mission is being sponsored by First Baptist Church of Mount Olive. We also are grateful to Rose Hill Baptist church for letting us use their building for our Spanish services and Bible study on Friday nights.

Another ministry has been reaching hispanics through a radio program each Sunday on WRRZ 880 a.m., 7:00 p.m.

We also have reached out to hispanics by placing tables outside different grocery stores and handing out tracts and flyers.

We have sent two members of the mission to study at Hispanic Baptist Theological Seminary in San Antonio, Texas and prepare for the ministry. They are Natalia Reyes and Juvenal Gonzalez.

Our goal as a mission is to have our own building and become an established church. We are praying about this project and waiting on God's help. As pastor of this mission I ask for your prayers that this may become a reality real soon.

We are grateful to First Baptist Church at Clinton for being our "mother" church and being interested in reaching the hispanics for Jesus. Once again I thank Dr. Alfred Miller for his support in continuing this ministry. Our sincere thanks also to Eastern Baptist Association, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and all the churches of Eastern Baptist Association who have helped in prayer and support.

Respectfully submitted,
William Ortega, Pastor

Sunday School Report

On September 30, 1990, "CHALLENGE 10/90" was completed. Ten million were not enrolled in Bible study. The Challenge must be kept before each and every Christian.

The major objective of Sunday School is to enroll every person in Bible study that all may come to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

During the past Associational year we have had church Sunday School leadership in training at Caswell, Caraway and Ridgecrest. As they have returned to their respective churches they have put new life in their Sunday Schools. It is always important for all Sunday School workers to receive training.

We now begin "BREAKTHROUGH" - Reach to Win as our theme through 1995. We will want to make every church event an Outreach effort.

Our new church year brings a new Associational Sunday School Improvement and Support Team which is ready to be of service to you. Associational Sunday School training will be provided during the coming year.

Media Library Report

The Eastern Baptist Association Media is a repository of periodicals, books, and audio-visual aids in assisting church leadership and laypersons in preparation for more effective ministry. All associational minutes (post 1969) will be sent to Wake Forest University to be microfilmed for permanent recording. We have at least eight churches with media libraries at one stage of development or another. Our focus this year will be to encourage each church to establish its own media library, and to acquaint all churches with a complete list of the latest videos, cassettes, and books available to them from our associational media library. Most of the Associational Media Library's budget will go toward acquiring new materials and keeping our churches informed about what we have to offer them. Please stop by the associational office and browse the shelf of current videos in the front office.

Evangelism Committee Report

The 1990 Simultaneous Revival efforts were a great success. Over half of our churches took part in these revivals. Our efforts were started with several one day soul-winning clinics in the Association, with five churches taking part. We continued with a special day of prayer in December for the revivals. The final and major event before the revivals was our Evangelism Rally with Dr. Charles Page as our guest speaker. The Rally saw the largest attendance ever remembered in our Association, with approximately 450 people. During our revivals the Victory Banquet was well attended with close to 100 people coming together to share the blessings of the week.

The reports on the revivals served to further instill in us the victories that can be won when we work together for our Lord Jesus Christ.

A special "Thank You" to all who helped to make these revivals a success.

John D. Maisenhelder, Chairman

Church Music Report

On February 19, 1990, adult choir members from 25 churches in our Association joined together as a mass choir of 170 voices for an evangelism rally. This event supported the Simultaneous Revivals and was held at First Baptist Church, Clinton.

In May your church music director attended the Key Leadership Conference at North Carolina Baptist Assembly. From this meeting, new ideas were heard and have been implemented.

Our Association is now divided into seven zones with five-eight churches in each zone. These geographic areas have a zone director that helps communicate both problems and victories to the associational music director.

On August 27 our Associational Key Leadership Conference had 21 churches represented in the Music Conference. New music periodicals from the Baptist Sunday School Board were shared.

Finally, on September 21-22, ten people from Eastern Baptist Association attended the Volunteer Music Director's Retreat at North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

Cooperative Program Report

Since 1925 the Cooperative Program has been the primary channel through which Southern Baptist churches have financed their mission programs. Tithes and offerings of church members have been disbursed to finance foreign, home, state, association, and even local church missions. It has been a beautiful and satisfying spiritual experience for churches who have really put their hearts into it.

What it is, is the team approach. Churches are working as a team through all their organized units of mission outreach.

Associations are channels through which many Baptist churches do a part of their mission work. Many of these ministries receive financial support through the Cooperative Program. The church sends Cooperative Program gifts to the state convention, and a part of this is used in the state mission office to support associational ministries. Vigorous Christian witness and ministry are carried out because of this cooperative effort.

Most churches feel that in addition to Cooperative Program support through their state, they need to share directly in the financial support of the association of which they are a part. Again—teamwork! Churches "teamed" together for associational mission ministries.

Just as churches participate in world missions by giving a percent of their budget income through the Cooperative Program, most churches also feel the need to share a percent through the association mission budget. This is not that missions should begin at home — but rather that missions may not end at home. Strong associational missions programs are essential to ensure continued strong state, foreign, and home missions programs for the churches.

If the churches accomplish their purpose in the area of world missions support, they will do so by using their tithes and offerings through the associational mission budget and the Cooperative Program. They are a team. The same team!

Albert Pope

'Discipleship Training Report

The Church Training program became the Discipleship Training Program during this year. This new name better reflects the focus of the program which has the responsibility within the church organization for helping all believers to develop spiritual maturity.

During the 1989-90 year, the Discipleship Training program of Eastern Association assisted churches and pastors in accomplishing tasks of reaching and equipping persons for discipleship and personal ministry by:

1. Sponsoring "M" Night, November 27, 1989, at First Baptist Church, Mount Olive. Special conferences for all ages were held in addition to the Rally.
2. Sending two members to the Enabler's Conference at Caraway Baptist Conference Center, November 17-18, 1989.
3. Sponsoring a Doctrine of Creation Seminar, Saturday, February 24, 1990. Dr. Roger Nix, Pastor, Temple Baptist Church, Raleigh, was the conference leader.
4. Providing an Association Youth Retreat, at Campbell University, March 30-31, 1990. Over 100 youth and adults attended.
5. Conducting the Associational Children and Youth Bible Drill, Wednesday, May 2, at Kenansville Baptist Church. Four churches participated: 27 children and one youth.
6. Providing a Discipleship Training Interpretation Dinner for all participants in the Key Leadership Conference, August 27, 1990.
7. Purchasing additional Equipping Center Modules for the Association's Lending Library.
8. Providing personal consultation on beginning and expanding Discipleship Training in local churches.

These goals were adopted by the Discipleship Training team for 1990-1991:

1. Establish and expand the Discipleship Training programs in Eastern Association churches with 75 percent of the churches reporting Discipleship Training.
2. Increase awareness of key Discipleship Training programs and the variety of curriculum materials and approaches in Eastern Association churches.
3. Interpret and promote the use of New Member Training material with 50 percent of churches reporting New Member Training.
4. Continue the percentage of churches in Eastern Association who offer the annual Doctrinal Study at 75 percent.

5. Continue to promote Discipleship Training through annual events such as "M" Night, Youth Retreat, Children and Youth Bible Drill and Speaker's Tournament.

To strengthen the Discipleship Training program of our Association and to begin new work in Discipleship Training we have a committed Discipleship Training Team. They are available to serve the churches of Eastern Association. Please let us help you by informing us of the particular training needs of your congregation.
